RUSSIAN ADMIRAL MURDERED

INSURANCE COMPANIES WILL PAY LOSSES

STABBED IN BACK BY A WORKINGMAN

Assassin Escapes in Crowd and His Colleagues Refuse to Give Him Up.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.—Vice Admiral Kuzmich, commander of the port, who was very unpopular with the workmen, was assassinated here today by workmen whose May day demonstration he had attempted to stop.

REFUSED THEM A VACATION.

The Admiral was killed at the new Admiralty works, a Government institution, where most of the 2000 men employed there reported for duty at 5 o'clock this morning. They wanted immediately to march out in a body and celebrate the Russian May day, but finally agreed to work until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Admiral, however, made a speech to the men, saying that he could not agree to their leaving work at 2 o'clock, and the matter was left open.

DROVE DAGGER IN BACK.

At about 9:30 a. m., according to an officer who was at the gate of the works, the Admiral was emerging from a small shop in the works, when a workman who had been concealed around the corner of the building, leaped on Kuzmich from behind and drove a long dagger into his back.

The Admiral fell forward on his face, which was badly cut by stones, and died immediately. The assassin fled into a large forge, where he was lost among the men employed there. The works were promptly surrounded by troops and police, but the search for the murderer was unavailing, his comrades professing ignorance of his identity.

ASSASSINATION PLANNED.

The police say it is evident that the assassination of the Admiral had been planned in advance. The dagger, which was found on the spot, was concealed in a round stick-like sword cane.

Among the workmen are many former sailors and revolutionists. Kuzmich had a bad reputation among the workmen, being regarded as hard and despotic.

WAS IN TWO WARS.

Admiral Kuzmich participated in the Russo-Turkish war and in 1902 was second flag officer of the Port Arthur fleet. He returned to St. Petersburg in 1903 and was appointed Commander of the port. Politically he was a reactionist.

BUILDINGS LIMITED TO 220 FEET

Is the Recommendation of Sub-Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The extreme height of any building in New San Francisco will be 220 feet if the recommendations of the sub-committee on reconstruction is adopted by the Board of Supervisors.

The committee unanimously agreed that this height was sufficient for all purposes on any kind of a street.

This limitation means that the sky scraper in San Francisco hereafter will not exceed eighteen stories in height.

The committee also took up the idea of limiting the height of buildings in proportion to the width of the streets.

Those streets which are more than 100 feet wide will have the privilege of erecting a class A building to the height of 220 feet. On those streets which are narrower the height of the buildings will be correspondingly lessened.

A committee of three was appointed by Chairman Gallagher to investigate the matter of limiting buildings on narrow streets and will have a report tomorrow.

POLICY HOLDERS TO BE TREATED FAIRLY

Underwriters, However, Will Not Be Organized Into a Charity Committee.

"THIS, I MAY SAY, THE UNDERWRITERS WILL PAY ALL LOSSES IN FULL AS THEY HAVE DONE IN THE PAST AND THAT WITHOUT A CENT OF DISCOUNT. MEN ACCUSTOMED TO LOOKING DISASTER IN THE FACE ARE NOW ADJUSTING THESE LOSSES SO THAT THEY MAY BE PAID AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, BUT THIS VISITING COMMITTEE MUST UNDERSTAND THAT THIS IS NOT A CHARITY INSTITUTION AND THEY CANNOT EXPECT IT TO BE ONE."—Statement made today by Chairman Spencer of the Underwriters.

This morning an open conference was held in Reed's Hall, between the Underwriters' Adjusting Bureau and a special committee of San Francisco property owners, consisting of Messrs. Eugene, Knight, Rich and Rothschild.

CONFERENCE OPENED.

In opening the conference Chairman Spencer explained its purpose, namely, that the visiting committee was seeking definite information concerning what the underwriters were doing and intended to do in the adjustment and settlement of claims. He thereupon introduced Mr. Knight, who acted as spokesman for the committee.

Mr. Knight said the committee represented a large number of the larger property owners in San Francisco who were desirous of going ahead with the reconstruction of their premises which were destroyed by the late fire, but before doing so it was necessary that they should obtain specific information on some points for their guidance. This information was now sought from them as the representatives of the insurance companies involved.

WANT INFORMATION.

The first thing that they desired to know was when the underwriters would establish headquarters at San Francisco. It was very desirable that this should be done so that small property owners, in particular, may gain the information they desire, relative to the adjustment of their losses and their payment by the companies in which policies are held.

Property holders, whose buildings and their contents have been destroyed want to know the policy of the insurance companies regarding the clearing of the debris from the premises so that they may proceed promptly with the work of restoration without putting their present insurance policies in jeopardy. Another point they desire to have settled is, what form of proof of loss do the underwriters demand.

CHAIRMAN EXPLAINS.

Chairman Spencer explained briefly the organization of the Underwriters' Bureau and the subsequent formation of an adjusting committee, the purposes of which were to facilitate the settlement of the San Francisco losses.

THE HEADQUARTERS.

Regarding the establishment of headquarters in Oakland, he explained that the conflagration in San Francisco left nearly, if not quite, all of the companies without a place where they could spread

HOW RIORDAN WAS SHOT BY MILITIAMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The preliminary hearing of L. N. Bechtel, a militiaman charged with the murder of Frank Riordan on April 20, was begun this morning before Police Judge E. P. Shortall, and it is more than probable that Bechtel will be held over to answer before the Superior Court on the charge. Deputy District Attorney Louis Ward represents the District Attorney's office, while Colonel Choynski represents Bechtel.

The evidence of Patrick Carberry, given this morning, was to the effect that he was standing talking with Riordan at Post and Octavia streets, and that there was a crowd and some soldiers gathered about a store a short distance away. Carberry and Riordan went to see what the trouble was. Carberry says that Riordan entered into conversation with a militiaman by the name of R. Merriweather, who lives at 1480 Sutter street, and the two came to blows.

Riordan told Merriweather that the militia were giving themselves airs and that most of them had never smelt powder. Carberry said that Merriweather answered that he was a veteran and had served in the Philippines. The argument grew louder, and finally Merriweather put his gun up against the wall and the two engaged in a fist fight.

Merriweather knocked Riordan down twice, and it was while they were in the midst of the row that Bechtel ran up and presented his bayonet at Riordan and told him to keep away. Riordan attempted to shove it to one side, and again he was commanded to step back, and immediately afterwards the crowd was startled by the firing of the gun. Riordan fell back and died shortly afterwards.

The evidence for the prosecution is all in, and Colonel Choynski is now engaged in putting in evidence in favor of his client.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

NEW YORK, May 14.—The trial of Mrs. Josephine Terranova, an Italian girl seventeen years old, for the murder of her uncle, Gaetano Reggio, and his wife in their home in this city last February, was scheduled to begin before Justice Scott today. The case is one of the most extraordinary to come before a New York jury in a long time.

Mrs. Terranova has confessed that she stabbed her uncle and aunt to death, but declares that she was impelled to do it by a great wrong done to her by her uncle, in which, she declares, he was aided by her aunt.

Mrs. Terranova had been taken into the home of her uncle, a well-to-do baker, as a sort of a ward, and repaid him back doing his housework. After her marriage, she asserts, Reggio hinted to her husband that her character was not spotless. Terranova demanded an explanation. She told him the story of her uncle's conduct and Terranova, with reproaches, abandoned her at once. Several days later Mrs. Terranova went to the home of her uncle and aunt, and while pretending friendliness to her uncle, stabbed him. Her aunt attacked him and was killed also.

The trial began with the selection of the jury, during which the prosecuting counsel, former Justice John [illegible] repeatedly asked the talesmen if they would be prepared to receive evidence showing that the defendant was partially deranged because of intense excitement when she killed her uncle and aunt.

Assistant District Attorney [illegible] represented the prosecution and it was announced that the charge of murder will be pressed only in the case [illegible]

ARMY OF HUNGRY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The army of the destitute is decreasing and is a sign of hope to Dr. Edward T. Devine, who is growing optimistic in regard to the solution of feeding the hungry thousands.

"Our count made on May 2d showed that rations were issued on that day to 279,000," he said to a TRIBUNE reporter this morning. "It was impossible that we could go on feeding such a vast army, but a count made on May 12, just ten days later, shows that rations were only applied for by 165,000.

"This is a big reduction and encourages us in the belief that we are adopting the proper method in handling the situation.

"The establishment of the kitchen which I told you about some days ago was a great thing. Only those absolutely hungry or without means are asking for meals and all waste in the giving away of supplies to any but those actually in need has been stopped. By the time the food supply gives out we are in hopes the great majority of those now being cared for will have found means of a livelihood."

THINK EXPLOSION IS EARTHQUAKE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 14.—There was an explosion at the works of the Union Metallic Cartridge Company at Stratford at 4:25 o'clock this morning. So far as known for some time later there was no loss of life. The shock was severely felt in this city where many windows were shattered. Reports of similar damage are received from New Haven, Derby and other places. Much alarm was occasioned, as it was first believed there had been an earthquake.

EXPLOSION OF GAS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—An explosion of gas nearly cost J. C. Collins of 42 Belvedere place his life about 9:15 o'clock last night, but while pieces of pipe went all over the room and the place was drenched with water he was unharmed. He says that he was induced to try and light the gas by reason of the fact that he thought he smelled it escaping, but the moment he placed a lighted taper to the burner it was followed by a terrific explosion.

From an investigation made by Captain Henry Gleason, it is evident that the gas pipes had a lot of water in them and that in some way the pipe choked up and caused the explosion.

He has advised the policemen of his district to warn all residents against using their gas under any pretext until such time as the authorities give notice that it is safe to do so.

FEARFUL BATTLE

Peter McConnell was hurled through the French plate glass door of his room at the Huff House shortly after 2 o'clock this morning by Walter Regelhuit.

The two had been waging a fierce fight with bare knuckles over the attentions of a woman named Kittie Gallager.

McConnell was fearfully cut up about the face and presented an awful appearance. He was hastily removed to the Receiving Hospital in a critical condition. His wounds were [illegible] up and later he was removed to the city jail. All the parties concerned are from San Francisco.

WOMAN DECLARES SHE WAS DRUGGED.

Julia Warren, arrested for [illegible] ness, declared in the police court this morning that she had been drugged by some man in a restaurant. [illegible] was her first appearance. Judge Sh[illegible] released her with a warning.

TRADERS TO PAY

CHICAGO, May 14.—At a meeting of the directors of the Traders' Insurance Company, which passed into the hands of a receiver a short time ago because of the losses of the company in the fire at San Francisco, it was decided to pay the losses, dollar for dollar. As soon as the directors show the court that the losses have been paid, the receiver is to be dismissed and the company will be continued in business.

PITIFUL IS HIS STORY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—For three weeks E. T. Johnson, formerly half owner in a restaurant at 102 First street, has been searching in the ruins of his former place of business for the remains of his partner, Theodore Hansen, who has been missing since the earthquake. This morning he was successful in finding human bones at the spot where his partner is thought to have been crushed by the falling of the building.

The pitiful story told by Johnson this morning to Coroner Walsh, when inquiring if the bones he had found were those of a human being, is as follows:

"On the morning of the earthquake I was just getting up. My partner was lighting the fire in the front part of the restaurant. When the shock came the front part of the building collapsed.

"I was able to escape the back way. I at once sought to rescue Hansen. I called for him, but there was no answer. I madly tore away the debris hoping that I would find him and be able to drag him to a place of safety.

"The fire came so rapidly that I was driven away and was compelled to leave poor Hansen under the collapsed building.

"I had been hoping against hope that he had by some chance escaped. Every day since the fire I have gone down to the place where the restaurant stood in the hope that I could solve the question whether he was alive or dead.

"This morning I found the bones and I fear that my friend and partner is dead. I hope that he was killed outright and did not have to suffer the torture of being burned to death, if he is dead, and I believe that he is."

There is no means of identifying the bones. From Johnson's story there seems to be but little doubt but that the bones found after three weeks' unremitting toil are those of Hansen.

WAGE WAR ON LOOTERS IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—A recommendation has been made by the Grand Jury of this city that large quantities of brass and copper that have been taken by the police from looters be taken by the committee having in charge the relief of the destitute and sold for the benefit of the poor. The letter was received by the Restoration Committee this morning, and is being considered by it. The communication is as follows:

FOR RELIEF FUND.

"San Francisco, May 12, 1906.

"To the honorable, the Finance Committee of the Committee of Forty—Gentlemen: We beg to inclose herewith a copy of resolutions this day adopted by the Grand Jury of the City and County of San Francisco and forwarded to the honorable Board of Police Commissioners, and we beg to recommend to your committee, that if it lie within your power, that you take steps to gather together all brass, copper, lead, window weights, etc., lying in the burned district and sell same for the benefit of the relief fund. We feel that there is not a sufficient quantity on any one man's property for him to go to the expense of gathering and selling same, but that if collected by your committee it will be large in quantity and make a substantial addition to the relief fund.

TO STOP COLLECTING.

"By our recommendation to the Board of Police Commissioners, we hope to stop the collecting of such material by unauthorized persons, which will leave your committee in a position to proceed with the good work.

"We understand that large quantities have already been confiscated by the civil and military authorities, and respectfully recommend that your committee confer with such authorities and arrange to have the proceeds from the sale thereof turned over to the relief fund. Very respectfully yours, Grand Jury of the City and County of San Francisco.

By MYRTLE CERF, Secretary."

The resolution is as follows:

DRASTIC ACTION.

"San Francisco, May 12.

"To the honorable, the Board of Police Commissioners of the City and County of San Francisco—Gentlemen: Whereas, It has been brought to our notice that large quantities of brass, copper, lead, etc., are being gathered from throughout the burned district by persons without authority, therefore,

"And whereas, said property is being sold for prices far below normal prices by persons not the owners thereof and not authorized to sell the same, and

"Recognizing that it will be impossible for you to cope with such situation without drastic action,

"We respectfully recommend that your honorable body suspend all licenses of junk dealers and confiscate all junk that they may have acquired since April 18, 1906, and which is not shown by their books to have been bought in accordance with the laws and ordinances in force. Very respectfully yours, Grand Jury of City and County of San Francisco.

By MYRTLE CERF, Secretary."

SUPERVISORS HEAR THE PROTEST OF CITIZENS

The Committee on Franchises of the Board of Supervisors met this morning, with Supervisor Rowe in the chair, for the purpose of hearing the protest of residents of Fruitvale against the granting of a franchise to the Western Pacific in that suburb until some guarantee should be given abutting property-owners that the company would pay them for damages which they would sustain by the building of the road at that point.

Several of the protestants voiced their views on the subject.

Attorney C. E. Snook spoke for the Western Pacific.

The application and protest was continued until June 4, and in the mean time representatives of both the Western Pacific and the protestants will confer on the subject with a view to bringing about a settlement.

PROTEST.

The protest is as follows:

"To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, Alameda county—Gentlemen: Whereas we, the undersigned have been informed that the Western Pacific railway (a corporation) has applied to your honorable body for a franchise permitting it to lay a broadgauge track and to operate a steam train through and upon Putnam street from Fruitvale avenue to High, situated in Fruitvale, Alameda county, California; and.

Whereas, the granting of said franchise and the operation of trains upon said Putnam street by the said Western Pacific Railway will greatly depreciate the value of property fronting upon said Putnam street, and greatly injure and damage owners of the same now, therefore,

"We, all of whom are property-owners, owning property fronting on said Putnam street, and on all cross streets between the Southern Pacific Railroad and Putnam street, respectfully request your honorable body to withhold the granting of said franchise until such time as the said Western Pacific Railway has made reasonable compensation to each and every property-owner on said street for damages which will inevitably accrue, and for depreciation of property by reason of the operation of said road. Very respectfully submitted."

PROTESTANTS.

The protest was signed by the following Henry Barkmeyer, Fred Hass Jr. Peter W Ehrhart, B. Bolesworth, Syndicate Investment Company, by Valentine Hush, N. P. Johnson, C. A. Jeffers, A. A. Flores, A. Hoover, A. B. Hubbard, D Gerome S. Hansen, J. Minnier, R. B. Ingle, J. Johnson, A. Hantale, A Gaillet, F. Studiger, S. W. Horny, C. Leuleker, Patrick Roach, Thomas C. Martin, John G Clerk, Theodore Kosch, Nelson McCuen, Mrs. M. J Schwand, Francis Place, Seherr R. Duker, Z. T. Northcut, Mrs. M. Oseguera, J. L. Hovet, F. Orra, F. C. Mitchel, F. Knier A. C. Van Houser, Mrs. Leonora M. Harrison Mary Nelson, C. A. Wieben Louis Goldeery, Leon Garrigues, B. H Mandenous, C. F. Orra, O. L. Zeis, William Floyd, Charles Christiansen, Fred Dahnken, Ed L. Brown, A. C. Jacobsen, Mrs. A. Jacobsen, M. Wall, Lucy E. White and E. L. Blackman.

OBJECTING VIEWS.

C. A. Jeffers said his main objection was based upon the fact that the application for a franchise called for tracks and switches which occupy all of Putnam street. There were trains passing near there all day. The running of the trains of another transcontinental road would double the number of trains per day. The track of the Western Pacific would run parallel to the Southern Pacific. At a distance of about 500 feet from Fruitvale avenue the track ran a distance of about sixty feet from the Southern Pacific track. It then turned north and ran at a distance of about 500 feet away from the Southern Pacific and then turned to the south again. That placed the residences there between two streets on each of which was a railroad. That would injure all property between those streets in the vicinity of Fruitvale avenue. Besides, the track of the Western Pacific ran within 200 feet of the school near Fruitvale, and, as a consequence, was a menace to the safety of the children attending that school.

QUESTION OF GATES.

C. Leidecker, of Fruitvale Progress, said if the Western Pacific should be granted a franchise gates should be provided at all the cross streets to protect life and property.

Fred Harris Jr. said that he was not hostile to the coming of the Western Pacific, but that he would like to have an understanding as to what the company would pay for the damages before the franchise was granted. The property-holders had been told that the Western Pacific would treat them in a fair manner, but they would like to have some assurance to that effect incorporated in the franchise.

Henry Barkmeyer said that the granting of the franchise would put several blocks of territory between two railroads and that that would depreciate the value of the property so included.

A resolution was adopted asking for bids for the construction of a concrete bridge across Cottonwood creek in Livermore road district.

The width of Vernal avenue from the northern boundary of the Piedmont Tract to Magnolia avenue was fixed at fifty-two feet, and of the west side of Vernal avenue from the Moraga road to Magnolia was fixed at fourteen feet.

MAPS OF TRACTS.

A map of Rhoda Tract was filed, but none of the streets in it were accepted as county roads. The same disposition was made of other tracts as follows, Loma Vista, Bay View and Foothill Park.

Manuel Pedro was appointed poundmaster of Brooklyn Township, vice C. F. Atkins, resigned.

Adjourned.

Attorney C. E. Snook then spoke in behalf of the Western Pacific Company. He said that that company could not lay a rail upon the street without paying damages to abutting landowners, and that the latter would have the right to appeal to the courts to protect their rights. The company wanted and would do the fair thing with the protestants, as it had done with all the people it had dealt with all the way from Salt Lake.

Supervisor Mitchell said he understood the board had no authority to make any stipulation on the subject in the franchise, which was laid down by the law.

C. Leidecker said that there were 100 property-owners in the district who would sustain damages.

After some further desultory talk the disposition above referred to was agreed to.

INSURANCE COMPANIES WILL PAY LOSSES

their books and accommodate the increased force of clerks which they were compelled to employ in order to transact business.

OAKLAND ONLY PLACE.

Oakland was the only place which could accommodate them. There was no desire on their part to neglect San Francisco But the conditions were such that the insurance companies could not do business in San Francisco. It is not the business of San Francisco exclusively that the insurance companies here are required to take care of, but the business of the entire Pacific Coast and we had to get a place where it could be properly attended to at once.

MUST HAVE ORGANIZATION.

"We could not have done what we have done," continued Chairman Spencer, "without organization, and after the bureau was formed we proceeded at once to appoint an adjusting committee which is now actively engaged in disposing of the claims of policyholders by reference to sub-committees most interested for immediate adjustment."

Some offices are now represented in reference to sub-committees representing the companies most interested for immediate adjustment.

WILL PAY ALL LOSSES.

"THIS I MAY SAY," continued Mr. Spencer, "THE UNDERWRITERS WILL PAY ALL LOSSES IN FULL AS THEY HAVE DONE IN THE PAST, AND THAT WITHOUT A CENT OF DISCOUNT. Men accustomed to looking disaster in the face are now adjusting these losses so that they may be paid as soon as possible But this visiting committee must understand that this is not a charity institution and they cannot expect it to be one."

The managers of some companies, he said, cannot now tell how they stand because their books have been totally destroyed and they must have time to straighten matters out.

THE REMOVAL OF DEBRIS.

As to the removal of debris from the lots on which the building and stock have been destroyed, with the view of rebuilding, that is a matter which must be left to the adjusting committees appointed to adjust the loss in such cases

Rolla V. Watt explained the difficulties besetting the special committee appointed to secure quarters in the ferry building in San Francisco. Quarters first assigned by the Harbor Commissioners in the north nave of the building were appropriated by the Southern Pacific Company. Substitute quarters assigned were found to be occupied by the federal government. New quarters are being arranged in another part of the building, in which a representative of the bureau will be installed next Monday.

Most companies have already quarters in San Francisco, where claims may be filed he said, so that there should be no inconvenience to the policyholders.

PUBLICATION OF LOSSES.

Regarding the publication of the list of losses, Mr. Watt said it would contitute a very large volume. "but if the banks will publish a list of all of their depositors and customers and the business houses will publish a list of their respective creditors," he added, "the insurance companies will publish a detailed list of their losses." He maintained that the insurance companies could not be reasonably asked to do what would not be demanded from any other branch of business. The insurance companies, he added, are much farther ahead with their business than the banks are, and yet they have an indebtedness of $200,000,000 to adjust.

David Rich said savings banks in San Francisco were on the spot and gave all information promptly regarding deposits when the depositor's book was lost.

Mr. Watt—That is just what the insurance companies are doing regarding all policies. You can't expect the bureau to give information concerning a policy that is burned up. That must be obtained from the company from which it was issued. The Underwriters mean to do what is right.

Mr. Rothschild said the committee was not present in a spirit of aggressiveness, but as a suppliant. It wanted to know what Mr. Watt meant by doing what is right. "We want to know what is right regarding losses by earthquake, dynamiting and fire. Some policyholders have no money to come to Oakland to seek information. What we want is the establishment of headquarters in San Francisco, where such persons can get responsible information."

The discussion was closed by Mr. Devlin, who assured the visiting committee that the insurance men were honorable men and would deal honorable information, however, concerning any policy on application by any company whose books have been destroyed, it is impossible. If Mr. Rich's records were all burned, could he answer off hand who was the owner of a certain lot on Mission street? Many insurance companies are temporarily in that position. It will, therefore, take time to adjust their affairs. This is a time for patience, not criticism. The insurance companies, with perhaps one or two exceptions, will pay every dollar they owe. Insurance men, in fact, will be called upon to rebuild San Francisco, but San Francisco property-owners must exercise patience in the settlement of claims.

Mr. Knight disclaimed the presence of the committee in a spirit of criticism and hostility The situation has, however, been simplified, he said, by the assurance given that an accredited representative of these headquarters will be installed in San Francisco next Monday.

This closed the conference.

THE OFFICE BOY AMID THE RUINS

Yesterday I went over to the city—or what's left of it, and picked up some souvenirs to send to my friends. I got the finest assortment of old pieces of brick and burned up tobacco bags you ever saw. What in thunder people want to buy and pay good American coin for a lot of old rubbish is what gets me—seems as though they would spend it for doughnuts and coffee—but say—hain't it an awful mess? There are blocks and blocks of ruin in which there is not 25 cents of actual value. Why we over here in Oakland are in clover compared with what the people there are putting up with. Anybody that lives in Oakland and kicks or finds fault, ought to move out. We have stores over here—clothing stores—one of 'em a little disfigured outside but all right, all right inside. Say did you see it Saturday—Saturday night? Yes, well, Barnum's circus wasn't in it. Why we sold clothes and things to wear until the clerks got daffy—and they run around hollering "NEXT" just like a barber shop. Keep it up—we like it—lots of goods left and more comin'.

PRINTER MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

Gus Jacobs, a printer, whose home is at 1139 Geary street San Francisco, tried to board an electric car at Forty-fourth street and Telegraph avenue this morning and his right leg was broken just above the ankle. How the accident happened is not known, but it is supposed that Jacobs missed his footing and was thrown to the pavement.

The injured man was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where his broken bone was set by Dr. Reinle. Jacobs is a brother of Dr. L. L. Jacobs of San Francisco.

SOLDIER SAYS HE WAS BEATEN.

Forty cuts and bruises about the head and face were the result of Charles Jones' outing at Idora Park yesterday. Jones is a soldier at the Presidio and came to Oakland on leave. At the park a gang of hoodlums, he says, declared that they were going "to get him" and his condition afterward proved that they were not indulging in an idle boast.

After the fight was over Jones went to the Receiving Hospital, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Irwin.

SAYS WAS ROBBED BY ROOMMATE.

W. J. Henning, residing at the Pleasanton House, reported to the police this morning that his room-mate, Thomas George, had stolen clothing and jewelry, valued at $20, from his room and disappeared.

would be an unhappy world if every one could see himself as Bobby Burns would have it. But, say, if every fellow could buy himself as others see him, and sell at his own valuation, he would clean up some big profits, wouldn't he? What do you hear of the "boom?" I hope it won't materialize. They must mean Lehnhardt's. His business is booming all right. Good reasons for it.

EARTHQUAKE STRUCK WATER MAINS FIERCELY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Chief Engineer [illegible] of the Spring Valley Water Company, with a party of engineers, geologists and newspaper men, went over his mains and reservoirs last Saturday. He has by this time reorganized the system, and is bringing the supply of the city will be equal in proportion to that it was getting before April 18.

That the water company was put out of business for a few days is no longer to be wondered at. The wily earthquake, evidently bent upon the destruction of the city, hit straight from the shoulder at the water works. The great fault which splits for miles the Bald Hill range in San Mateo passes straight through the chains of reservoirs. With an exactitude that is almost unbelievable it follows the great Lake Honda main. The main leaks like a sieve. It is fattened out like a burst bladder for hundreds of yards in places at a time, and acres it has been pierced in thousands of the open ends gape at from one to eight feet apart; at other points it is squeezed, and in crawling along the trestle upon which it ran has left down down the creek a full twenty feet, as if in a playful cuff of some giant's fist.

At Baden the San Andreas main was torn apart. The Crystal Springs main, passing over it on a trestle, was thrown down upon the fault and lay upon the ground like a dismantled derrick. Both mains were broken. The Lake Honda reservoir was also destroyed. The Parkside main was left undisturbed, but the water from it can only flow into the city through the [illegible].

PIPES ARE TORN APART.

The party was [illegible] consisted of [illegible] Professor Frank Soulé, professor of civil engineering at the University of California; Professor S. B. Christy, [illegible] of the College of Mining Engineering at the University of California; H. Wicks, professor of structural engineering at Stanford University; J. B. Lippincott, [illegible] engineer of the United States Geological Survey, and Engineer Adams, [illegible] system expert.

The system was first examined. There the [illegible] from the San Andreas reservoir [illegible] a marsh on a small [illegible] the pipe had been torn apart [illegible]. That it was not worse was due, [illegible] that Schussler, when he [illegible] fourteen years ago, had [illegible] with split joints, [illegible] the earthquake [illegible]. The pipe was [illegible] that, but the pipe is now [illegible] with a swivel joint, which Schussler says will withstand a shock [illegible] of April 18.

The Crystal Springs main was next examined. Near Baden the [illegible] pipe passed [illegible] marsh. The trestle was [illegible] at a point [illegible] open. The pipe, [illegible] was [illegible] although [illegible] from the trestle and lying [illegible] a cascade, and this gave [illegible] to the [illegible] for the repairs [illegible] is now rebuilt, the pipe again [illegible] and ready [illegible] to which [illegible] and yesterday the water was running through it.

FAULT TRAVERSES LAKE.

The [illegible] drops up on the Bald Hill [illegible] runs north and south [illegible] the entire length. Along the [illegible] ridge the company has a series [illegible] reservoirs, the principal of which are the San Andreas and Crystal Spring [illegible] which extend north and south [illegible] two miles. The earthquake [illegible] right along this chain. It [illegible] the eastern shores and cuts through the [illegible] and extends north along the [illegible] of the Bald Hill ridge, like a [illegible] crew.

The fault was followed for eight miles north of the San Andreas reservoir. It [illegible] almost north and south. In a [illegible] as [illegible] to attention to [illegible] the ground is topography. At times it is narrow as one furrow plowed [illegible] at others it is almost 500 feet wide, the ground between the extremities being all plowed up, but there being no open cleft. On the top of one of the ridges a fence crossed the fault at right angles. It stops at the fault, having been broken by it, and when it starts again on the other side of the fault it is eight feet farther north than where it stopped. This was one of the most conclusive signs of what had happened, and is corroborated by the breaks in the pipe. The geologists of the party decided that either a block of the earth east of the fault had slipped south for eight feet, or that a block west of the fault had slipped eight feet to the north. It is only by extensive and accurate surveys that will be made, that it will be found which of the two things occurred. That there was a slip of eight feet, however, is an established fact. Schussler, who knows that country thoroughly, is of the opinion that the slip was between the sedimentary and sandstone formations which lie against each other for miles along the hills.

FURROW RUNS MANY MILES.

South of the San Andreas reservoir the fault could be followed for many miles. It was along the eastern edge of the lakes most of the time, but cut through them in places. It struck the San Andreas earth dam at one of the concrete supports and knocked it back seven or eight feet, as if with a blow straight from the shoulder, the rest of the dam remaining in position. The fault makes right for the immense concrete dam of the Crystal Springs Lake reservoir, and starts again on its other side, but the dam itself does not show a crack, a tribute to Engineer Schussler's constructive ability.

At the time of the earthquake the Spring Valley reservoirs were pouring 36,000,000 gallons a day into the city. The earthquake stopped every quart of that. Eighty million gallons were stored in the city reservoirs, and that ran out through the fire hydrants and the broken pipes during the day. Within sixteen hours, however, Schussler had 7,000,000 gallons flowing in from Lake Merced. Following that he repaired the San Andreas pipe at Baden. Through this the College Hill reservoir, supplying the South Mission, was filled. The Lake Honda reservoir, which had been destroyed, was repaired meanwhile and filled as a reserve for the fire department.

Yesterday the water was started again down the Crystal Springs main, and by evening the University Mound reservoir was filled. A pumping station is being built at Twenty-sixth and Harrison streets, and this will supply 7,000,000 gallons a day to the upper Western Addition. Little by little the Crystal Springs will supplant the rather unwholesome Lake Merced water. The submarine pipes carrying water from Alameda county are intact; minor repairs at their extremities will be soon finished, and this will add to the supply.

PRAISE IS GIVEN TO GEORGE AUSTIN

The Morning Oregonian of May 5th, had the following to say of George Austin, the well known real estate man:

The Morning Oregonian of May 5th Oakland, has been of great assistance to the workers of the Oregon relief bureau. He has allowed them the use of the front of his office for their headquarters without rent, while others refused to rent office room without a year's lease. So many people gather at the Oregon relief bureau office at all hours that it necessarily puts him to great inconvenience in his own business, but he has met this with uniform courtesy and has expressed his gratitude at being able to assist in any way possible in the bureau's good work."

DANCER'S ATTIRE SHOCKS BOSTON

BOSTON, Mass., May 14.—A dance, such as the "400" of Boston rarely see, and which shocked some of the matrons who attended the affair at Mrs. "Jack" Gardner's home, Fenway court, Wednesday, was given by Miss Ruth St. Denis. The dance was so novel in the matter of attire that the patronesses rubbed their eyes and looked a second time and third time before they could believe what their sight conveyed to their minds. Two hundred and fifty men and women paid $5 each to witness Miss St. Denis go through her gyrations and contortions. Then they gasped for breath.

The dancer told oriental stories, with pose and gesture, in true East India style. While none of her dances was open to criticism on the lines of vulgarity, they made a sensation with Boston's aristocracy. She explained her scantiness of attire by saying that it was absolutely necessary in performing the intricate movements of the Hindoo dances. Her languorous movements enchanted and yet startled the smart set.

Miss St. Denis was stained so that instead of presenting her usual fair appearance she was transformed into a dusky oriental maiden. Having made a hit with New York society, she was naturally accepted here and is the rage for the moment. Instead of returning to New York Wednesday night, as she had planned, Miss St. Denis entertained a party of smart folk at the home of Mrs. Lucius H. Sargent. She intends to sail for London and the East in two weeks.

SOLDIERS BREAK CAMP IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, May 14.—Company D, Seventh Regiment, N. G. C., which has been stationed in this city, broke camp at an early hour yesterday morning and went to Oakland to join the battalion.

During their stay in this city the militiamen had an easy time of it, so easy in fact, that they became restless and were anxious to leave. They have only had guard duty and drilling, and no excitement prevailed while here.

A CRITICAL PERIOD

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with a displacement for years and was passing through the change of life. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful to ailing women.

RELIEF COMMITTEE IN NEED OF FUNDS

The finance committee of the Oakland Relief Committee is confronted with a serious problem touching the care and maintenance of the refugees now in this city, and at a meeting held yesterday at the rooms of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, it was shown that unless the financial situation is bettered within a very short time, the committee will be hard pressed for funds with which to carry on its work. Collections of money in the last three days have amounted to but $1300, and as the relief committee is charged with the care of 18,963 refugees, with but $26,000 in its treasury, and only seven days provisions on hand, it is plain that the situation is one requiring immediate attention, if the committee is to continue its work, as it must do for some time to come.

The total amount of money collected up to date by the Oakland Relief Committee is $114,000, including $50,000 received from the San Francisco Relief Committee. There is still $8000 of the money subscribed for relief to be collected, making a total fund of $122,000 in the hands of the committee. Of this $31,000 has been paid out on bills contracted by the committee, and there are still bills to the amount of $65,000 to be paid, which are now being audited. This leaves in the hands of the relief committee an apparent surplus of $26,000, with which to carry on its work, which must be continued for possibly the next four or five months.

The work of the relief committee has now practically been placed in the hands of the executive committee of ten members of the relief organization, and at the meeting yesterday afternoon this committee placed the actual supervision of the work in charge of a committee composed of James P. Taylor, James Edoff, Sol Kahn and A. J. Snyder, who will hereafter conduct the financial affairs of the relief committee. It has been determined that the smaller committee will be able to handle the work with greater dispatch and accuracy than would be possible with a larger number.

Experience since the destruction of San Francisco has proven that the expense of caring for the sufferers will be approximately $5000 a month, exclusive of the purchase of all supplies, so that it is plain to all members of the committee that with the added expense of supplies for the camps, the funds on hand will last but a short time. Owing to the fact that the supply of money is becoming so serious a question it has been decided that no bills for labor previous to May 8 shall be considered or paid, that all such labor shall be considered volunteer.

It has also been determined that no bills contracted since May 8 shall be paid unless they are authorized paid by Major Erwin, who is now in charge of the relief work in this city. Major Erwin has divided the work by placing the various branches in charge of the following departments: Executive, transportation (by teams), information, investigation, employment and concentration. The information department has already secured a list of 32,000 names for the information of those searching for missing relatives and friends, which has proven of great assistance in the search. The investigating department is rapidly weeding out all persons who have been securing supplies to which they are not entitled.

It is the purpose of the concentration department to immediately abolish the camp at Beulah Park the inmates of which will be removed to the general relief camp at Adams Point, and also the Chinese camp at Berkeley. The Chinese who have been quartered at the latter camp will be removed to the Chinese camp at the Willows.

Hereafter supplies for persons quartered outside the relief camps will be issued only on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. There will, however, be an officer of the relief committee, or the Red Cross, always on hand at the supply depot to see that deserving cases requiring immediate relief are supplied at once.

The executive committee has determined that all bills, with the exception of those for labor and teams, which will be given preference at all times, must come up in regular order for payment. Each bill is numbered as it is presented, and all bills will be paid as numbered.

A splendid example of the work of the Oakland Relief Committee was furnished just a week ago. James Edoff, one of the members of the executive committee, had occasion at that time to visit Fort Mason, and while there he was informed by Dr. Murdock that owing to a scarcity of clothing it had been impossible to furnish a change of nightclothing to any of the eighty-five patients in the maternity hospital. Mr. Edoff returned to this city and laid the case before the Rev. Charles R. Brown. At the close of his morning sermon last Sunday Dr. Brown appealed to the members of his congregation to aid in alleviating the sufferers in the hospital, and in less than an hour 169 nightrobes had been delivered to Dr. Brown, and at 1:30 on Sunday afternoon they had been placed in the hands of Dr. Murdock for the use of the patient's in the hospital.

WOULD REVISE MARRIAGE LAWS

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—Among the many topics discussed at today's session of the National Conference on Charities and Corrections were needy families, defective and difficult boys, industrial training for children, immigration and training for social workers.

The principal speaker on the subject of defectives was Edward R. Johnson, superintendent of the New Jersey training school at Vineland, N. J., and chairman of the committee on defectives.

In speaking of the laws for the prevention of the increase of deftectives, Mr. Johnston said:

"A careful revision of the marriage laws in the various States is needed. Elopement, marriages under age, consanguinous marriages, the marriage of people while intoxicated, all need legal restriction and enforcement of the laws. Laws requiring the permanent custody of feeble minded women at least, are needed. We need it to be mandatory to send the defectives to the institutions and the capacity of institutions must be sufficient to work in harmony with compulsory education laws."

HER GIFT A PLAYGROUND FOR CHILDREN.

Mrs. Mary M. Miller, widow of the late General W. M. Miller, has notified the park board that she would donate a block of ground between Nineteenth and Twentieth avenues, North and East Harrison and East Thomas streets, as a site for a children's playground. The property is worth several thousand dollars. It is to be known as the Pendleton Miller playground, being so named after a son of Mrs. Miller. General Miller was an army officer residing in the Northwest during the days of Governor Isaac I. Stevens, of Washington Territory. The two men were close friends.—Seattle Times.

ROCKEFELLER'S PASTOR QUITS

NEW YORK, May 14.—Dr. Rufus P. Johnson resigned the pastorate of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church yesterday. The resignation is to take effect on June 30th.

The announcement of the resignation was in the form of a statement read by Dr. Johnson at yesterday's services. The reason he gives in this statement is that it has long been his wish to spend some time in travel and study in Europe, and that he feels that he has an imperative need of rest. He recounts the pleasant relations between himself and the congregation and the success of the church work.

Among the members of the church are John D. Rockefeller and his son, the latter conducting a Bible class in the Sunday school.

SAN FRANCISCANS NOW IN PIEDMONT

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Brugiere, whose home on the corner of Franklin and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, was dynamited, are stopping with their family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Coop in Piedmont.

POSTPONEMENT.

The regular meeting of the Sons and Daughters of the Maritime Provinces, which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed for a few days. This postponement is occasioned and considered advisable on account of the President, H. C. Tupper, being in Los Angeles completing arrangements in connection with the excursion to Halifax, Nova Scotia; and also because the hall committee, through pressure of business, have not been able to meet and secure a hall—the regular meeting place of the society having been leased for business to a wholesale San Francisco firm. A meeting, of which due notice will be given, will be held shortly to consider and decide on the several important matters demanding attention.

ABSCONDER IS AGAIN IN CITY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—After an absence of two years, the formerly familiar face of "Billy" Vice, the absconding ticket agent of the Union Pacific Railway, was seen yesterday in this city. Two years ago Vice, who was well known throughout the city in social, financial and business circles, suddenly disappeared, and the Union Pacific officials announced that he had robbed the company of more than $6,000. It is believed that the sum taken was double that amount.

Vice, taking advantage of the recent disaster, decided to revisit his former home.

Vice's disappearance and exposure was more sensational from the fact that it occurred the day after his daughter's wedding. Not only did he mulct his employers, but he forged his wife's name to a chattel mortgage on the furniture and disposed of the family's household goods. The methods pursued by Vice in his looting were peculiar, his position enabling him to rob emigrants and poor people of their return ticket to foreign parts and sell them to others desiring to leave the country.

Vice first fled to Honduras, but word was later received that he had been seen in Boston in company with Fleischman, who robbed the Los Angeles banks two years ago.

Vice has changed greatly in appearance, having lost considerable weight.

STUDENT RETURNS.

BERKELEY, May. 14.—Augustus Griffin, a member of the senior class of the University, is at his home on Allston way for a few days. He has been engaged in irrigation engineering in the Modesto district, Stanislaus county. He expects to spend most of the summer in the same locality.

Stop Grumbling

If you suffer from rheumatism or pains, for Ballard's Snow Liniment will bring quick relief. It is a sure cure for Sprains, Rheumatism, Contracted Muscles and all pains—and within the reach of all. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00. C. W. Smith, Tenaha, Tex., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for years and have found it a fine remedy for all pains and aches. I recommend it for pains in the chest." Sold by Wishart's Drug Store, corner of Tenth and Washington streets.

MANCHURIA ARRIVES HERE

SAN FRANCISCO, May [illegible].—The steamer Manchuria has arrived from Oriental ports. The passengers collected a purse of $1000 for the crew, most of whom lived in this city. The crew decided to turn over the money to the San Francisco relief fund. The Manchuria brought $612,815 worth of opium. Among the passengers was Frank Pixley, the playwright. Before leaving the city for the Orient Pixley deposited his wife's jewels and the manuscript of his latest play in the safe of the Hotel St. Francis. He is now greatly concerned about the safety of the contents of that strong box.

BROKER FINDS HOME.

Miss Elizabeth Murray Newman of San Francisco, in a letter to her Oakland friends, says she and her relatives have made a home temporarily with Mr. Newman's partner, Mr. Myles. Both Mr. Newman and Mr. Myles are prominent brokers in San Francisco.

SYSTEMATIZING THE WORK OF RELIEF

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The systematic distribution of rations by the consolidated relief bureau created on May 8d under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Lea Febiger has reduced the number of rations issued daily from 279,631 to 164,000. The latter was the record of Saturday. This reduction has been accomplished through the military regulation introduced by Major-General Greely, which excluded every able-bodied man from the bread lines, thus forcing this class to join the workers employed in clearing the streets or migrate from the city. Then the Red Cross Society introduced a system of registration which tabbed the drawers of rations and put an end to repeating.

The latter had grown to huge dimensions and many unworthy recipients of public relief were taking advantage of the situation to accumulate a stock of supplies for future use. The seizure of some of these caches, which were discovered by the military, and their restoration to the relief bureau had a wholesome effect. It is estimated, however, that there are still 100,000 persons in the bread line who are capable of supporting themselves at once, and the relief bureau is now aiming to separate this body from the truly destitute, which number approximately 50,000.

This is to be done by stopping the issuance of free rations and substituting community kitchens or messrooms where fifteen-cent meals will be served to the holders of tickets issued by the relief committee, which the latter redeems on presentation by the contractor. One kitchen with a capacity for feeding 5000 persons has been put into successful operation and a dozen others are being erected in various parts of the city.

Colonel Febiger is confident that in another month the present 50,000 dependents on public relief will have been reduced to 10,000, as the demand for labor will have increased materially in the meantime and avenues of employment will have been opened for many of those who are now absolutely destitute, so as to enable them to become self-sustaining.

WARM PRAISE FOR LYNCH

Revenue Collector John C. Lynch, who has established his official headquarters in the Oakland Postoffice and will maintain them there till July 1, if not longer, has received a letter from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, highly complimenting him and his assistants on the efficent manner in which the service in this district has been managed since the great disaster in San Francisco. The commissioner says:

"Through telegrams and reports received from your office and from Revenue Agents Thomas and McGinnis, the situation at San Francisco and other points in your district since the occurrence of the dire calamity of April 18 is pretty well understood here. From these sources of information this office is convinced that matters relating to this service have been handled in a manner that reflects great credit on all the officers and employes of your district, and that the interest of the government have been safeguarded with a fidelity worthy of unstinted commendation. For their untiring devotion to their duties so difficult of accomplishment in view of the deplorable circumstances under which the work was done, the thanks of this office are due and are hereby tendered."

HOW TO CORRECT REBATE DEALS

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Senator Nelson today had read in the Senate the following telegram from the president of the Chicago and Great Western Railway:

"St. Paul, Minn., May 12, 1906.

"Hon. Knute Nelson, United States Senate, Washington, D. C.: "As you know, I am in full sympathy with the main features of the amendment proposed to the interstate commerce act, but I desire to protest against the injustice of the proposed amendment imposing fine and imprisonment on officers and agents of railway companies for allowing rebates. Such penalties can never be inflicted upon presidents and high officials of 160,000 miles of railways of this country, who live in New York, and do not deal directly with rates, while their demand for more revenue will induce some freight agent on a salary of $3000 or $4000 a year to grant a rebate. Make the penalty as high as you please against the railway company. This is the only way to reach the railway czars and grand dukes. The penalty of imprisonment was in existence for many years, and only one man, a poor freight agent, trying to support his family on a meager salary, was imprisoned.

(Signed.) "A. B. STICKNEY."

MORE PRISONERS THAN ROOM

LONDON, May 14.—The Anglo-Turkish difficulty has been settled to the satisfaction of Great Britain, the Turkish Government having yielded on all points unconditionally.

Foreign Secretary Grey announced in the ouse of Commons today that a satisfactory note had been received from the Turkish Government acceding to the British demands that a joint commission be appointed to delimitate the Sinai peninsula frontier.

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Chaplain of the Senate, read to that body on its convening today this text from the Scriptures:

"Blessed are the peacemakers ,for they shall be called the children of God; blessed are ye when men shall revile and persecute you and say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake."

HAD A QUIET TALK WITH THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Attorney-General Moody and Senator Allison conferred with the President today on the situation that has arisen concerning the railroad rate bill in the Senate.

On leaving the executive office Mr. Moody said that he would make no statement in answer to that made by Mr. Tillman in the Senate Saturday; that if any statement is made it will come from the President. He would not say that the a statement is to be made.

WAGES HINGE ON PRICE OF COAL

TAMAQUA, Pa., May 14.—Commissioner Neil, who was appointed by the Anthracite Coal Commission to compute the rate of wages for anthracite miners, has notified the coal operators that the miners will be paid eight per cent on the $4.50 basis for the month of May, the average prices of coal at tide water last month being $4.93 per ton.

This is the highest rate at which the miners have been paid since the commission made its award.

How Rapid Life is Killing Our People.

UNPRECEDENTED NUMBER OF DEATHS RESULT FROM HEART DISEASE.

The fact that 236 persons died recently in one week in New York City, from heart disease, when the death rate the corresponding week in 1901 was only 94, has given rise to the belief among physicians that New York residents, and American people generally, for that matter, are living too rapidly. The strain of business and worry attendant on keen competition and the worry attendant on almighty to gain wealth are given as an explanation by physicians of the conditions which exist to-day.

Doctors have ascertained the fact that the nerve forces which control the stomach and the heart, are affected by the worry of men in the daily scramble to sell their food, in order to quickly resume their exciting games. Many young men now succumb to heart disease, where 30 years ago, a case was rare when a person under 50 years of age died from this malady.

Women are also victims. This is attributed to the manner in which they worry over social engagements, also to over-work. Worry and excitement, together with many nerve shocks which come to all in their daily life, of hustle and hustle, are the principal causes which reap the heartstrings.

We Americans, both men and women, are living too fast. We work too hard and worry too much. How can the strain be best contracted and the damage done be quickest repaired? Only by humoring and assisting the stomach to act in a more healthy manner. Thus will the blood be enriched, the nerves invigorated and the action of an enfeebled heart strengthened and regulated. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains just the right ingredients to do this, as will be seen from what eminent medical authorities say of the different ingredients composing it. To make the weakened stomach strong that it may properly digest the food and thus manufacture rich, red blood. Golden Seal, a prominent ingredient of the "Golden Medical Discovery," is pre-eminently the article needed. The late Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati, author of "Specific Medication," says of it:

"It stimulates the digestive processes, and increases the assimilation of food. By these means the blood is enriched. * * * The consequent improvement on the nervous and glandular systems are natural results." He further says:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

The United States Dispensatory says of Golden Seal root: "As a local remedy Hydrastis (Golden Seal) has a remarkable effect upon the mucous membranes. Used in gastro-intestinal (stomach-bowel) catarrh. * * *

"In its influence upon the nervous system this agent (Golden Seal), has stimulating properties, affecting respiration and circulation, imparting tone and increased power to the heart's action."

Then besides Golden Seal, which, according to the best medical authorities, stands at the head of all stomach and heart tonics and invigorators, there is Stone root (Collinsonia Canadensis), which enters largely into the composition of "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is an acknowledged stomach and heart tonic—especially superior to all other remedies in valvular and other affections of the heart. The late Prof. Wm. Paine, M. D., of Phila., says in his work on Concentrated Medicines:

"I met long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with a valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonia (the active medicinal principle of Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Hereupon [illegible] declare I know of no remedy for the relief of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonia unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

"Golden Medical Discovery" so strongly and faithfully represents the active medicinal principles residing in both Golden Seal and Stone root that it can be depended upon to produce their combined and best curative effects. It must not, however, be expected to perform miracles. Those who have abused themselves by over-work, and thus invited stomach and heart weakness must not expect a cure from the "Golden Medical Discovery" unless they reform their habits. They must let up on their strenuous labors and not over-tax their brains, nerves or muscles, take rational exercise in the out-door air, and simple food and not too much of it—never commanding a overloading the stomach. Get to sleep early and take plenty of rest in bed. With these improved habits of life the broken-down one may confidently expect relief and cure from the use of that great stomach, nerve and heart tonic and invigorator, "Golden Medical Discovery."

It is folly saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this potent blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from in spring, is often induced by impure blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, by foul tongue, bad breath, headache, etc. Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood diseases as well as bring a healthy glow and rosy vigorous, vibrant and dynamic. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful drugs, and the only one, every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers in this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free on receipt of request therefor by postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Doctor Pierce's medicines are made of.

The "Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, are recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have much more weight with the sick and suffering than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously dangled before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has [illegible] or guaranty on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing more than a thousand large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BERNHARDT OPENING

Sarah Bernhardt will appear at Ye Liberty Theater this evening. She will also appear at Ye Liberty Tuesday and Wednesday nights and at Wednesday matinee.

This will be the last time that this world-famous actress will ever display her unrivaled art in this city, for in spite of her extraordinary vigor of vitality and her still noteworthy juvenility of appearance, the "Divine Sarah," though undoubtedly as great an actress as she has ever been, is approaching the period when she can no longer race around the globe as she has just done to fill her engagement in Chicago. She has not the same resources—of financial and domestic independence—which kept Irving at the weary round long after he would fain have sought repose. And a life of perpetual activity, both mental and physical, such as Mme. Bernhardt's, is not the kind which paves the way for a long old age of quiet restful work.

When one considers the immense amount of energy which Mme. Bernhardt must infuse into her every performance—for her work is of a kind into which that unknown and force-exhausting quality called magnetism enters very largely—the quantity of work which she manages to get through is astounding. It is impossible for her to rid herself of the personal care of the entire detail of all her performances. Although she has had for years around her an excellent corps of players, stage managers and assistants of every kind, she has never acquired the habit of trusting to their work alone. Whatever slightest thing comes under her notice that does not quite suit her fancy, she will at once take into her own hands. She is consulted on every question, keeps in intimate touch on every phase of the production of the play.

She has brought to America a repertoire of ten heavy roles, eight of which she is presenting throughout the country, and two only where her engagements run beyond a week. She is playing eight different performances—a week. In Chicago, by the way, the public demand compelled a week of ten performances and her engagement in that city (which was the opening of her American tour) was unprecedented in the dramatic history of the Western metropolis.

BERNHARDT IN "LA SORCIERE."

The great novelty of the Bernhardt season at Ye Liberty Playhouse, Oakland, which is the opening play tonight, is "La Sorciere" (the Sorceress) is the latest work of the famous French playwright, Victorien Sardou, the author of "La Tosca," "Fedora," "Gismonda" and other famous plays, and was originally produced at the Theater Sarah Bernhardt in Paris in November, 1904, with the author's heroine in the role of Zoyara, the Moorish maiden.

The scene is laid in Spain at the time of the Inquisition, when the Catholics were in power. Zoyara is accused of witchcraft, in stealing the love of Enrique de Palacios from the simple peasant girl Margarita, a role not unlike the part of Micaela in "Carmen." An insurrection is breaking out. Zoyara is brought to hold back Enrique, who is the commander of the town. The Cardinal Simonez, the head of "The Court of Inquisition" has seen and become enamored of Zoyara, but she repulses him. At her trial before the Inquisition on the charge of witchcraft she is condemned to death at the stake. Before she dies Enrique avows his love for her.

The powerful scenes between Zoyara, Enrique and the Cardinal Simonez exceed in strength the "La Tosca" ones. The production is a magnificent one, and is the same used by Mme. Bernhardt in Paris, London and New York.

The entire company of fifty-five arrived this morning, and on account of lack of hotel accommodation will live on its special train of Pullmans.

Tuesday night the great artist will be seen in "La Tosca." Wednesday matinee in "Camille" and Wednesday night in "Sapho."

"Phedre," Racine's beautiful Greek tragedy will be given at the Greek Theater in Berkeley Thursday afternoon.

MIS ALMA BENNETT SCORES IN NEW YORK

Miss Alma C. Bennett of San Francisco made her debut in New York at a piano recital given at Aeolian Hall, Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, on Tuesday evening, May 8th, in aid of the suffering children of San Francisco. She is a pupil of Carl V. Lachmund.

Miss Bennett is the daughter of Thomas Bennett, the New York representative of Levi Strauss & Company, who formerly lived on Fillmore street, San Francisco. Mr. Bennett for years has been identified with the local dry goods interests across the bay.

The young lady made a great success at the recital. A large sum of money was realized on the sale of tickets.

DID NOT LIKE THE TONE OF THE PRESS

BUDAPEST, May 14.—Official note has been taken of the unfriendly comment of the Hungarian press on the approaching visit of Emperor William to Emperor Francis Joseph at Vienna, and both Premier Wekerle and Minister of Commerce Francis Kossuth publicly discountenanced it. The premier took the opportunity of an election address at Bruesvar yesterday to declare his conviction that "Austria-Hungary wished to remain an equal factor in the German alliance, which not only was a guarantee of peace, but was the pillar of Austria-Hungary's foreign policy."

He further declared that there was absolutely no foundation for the rumors that Germany has in any way interfered in the internal affairs of the dual monarchy, rumors of which largely occasioned the present display of bitterness.

Kossuth expressed the opinion that the comments in the papers did not express the real opinion of Hungary, which thoroughly realized the desirability of the best relations with Germany.

DUPLEX SYSTEM FOR ALASKA CABLES

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Orders have been issued by General Allen, the chief signal officer of the army, for the installment of the duplex system on the Alaskan cables. The commercial business of the company has become so heavy that even by working night and day the operators are not able to handle all the dispatches. With the new system the capacity of the cables will be increased about 75 per cent.

BRITISH GARRISON PARADES IN SQUARE

ALEXANDRIA, May 14.—The British garrison of Alexandria, consisting of infantry and artillery, with bands playing and colors flying, marched through the main streets of the town today and paraded on the big square. The object of this military demonstration was to reassure and impress the natives, who had been disturbed by the recent pan-Islamic campaign launched by the supporters of the Turkish action on the Sinai peninsula.

VETERANS AT BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, May 14.—The Women's Relief Corps and their friends visited the Veteran Reserves in the University grounds last evening. The Veterans prepared a unique reception for these ladies. About seventy-five were present.

Two or three hours of the evening were whiled away in speech-making. Captain Garlock, Lieutenant Darnell, W. R. Thomas, former Mayor of Oakland; Chaplain Jesse Smith, and Mrs. Anloff made short talks, and H. H. Woodruff told a Civil War story.

RAISED RENT.

Editor TRIBUNE: We have come to you with our troubles. Can you help us once more? My Chinese washman showed me a letter today, saying, "Your rent, which has been $20 a month, will after June 1, be raised to $125,' and signed by a prominent real estate firm. Others of his class have had similar notices, and the question is, where shall these needed workers find a shelter? Can you solve the problem?

THE PLUNGER" AT THE MACDONOUGH

The Elleford Stock Company is doing an enormous business at the Macdonough Theater, and everything points to a season of extradordinary prosperity. Tonight and all the week it will appear in the comedy melodrama, "The Plunger," which brought Oliver Doud Byron fame and fortune. The production will be a very beautiful one and the cast will include in addition to the entire Elleford company, quite a number of new people. Jim Corrigan, a great Oakland favorite, and one of the best comedians on the American stage; that remarkably clever and versatile character artist, George P. Webster, and Norval McGregor, a handsome and talented young leading man, have been specially engaged, and will appear tonight. Mr. Elleford has spared neither pains or expense to insure a perfect presentation, and it is safe to predict a most delightful entertainment. During the Elleford season at the Macdonough special summer prices will prevail—evenings 10, 20 and 30 cents, and Saturday and Sunday matinees 10 and 20 cents.

All Run Down

In the spring—that is the condition of thousands whose systems have not thrown off the impurities accumulated during the winter—blood humors that are now causing pimples, boils and other eruptions, loss of appetite, bilious turns, indigestion, and other stomach troubles, dull headaches and weak, tired, languid feelings.

Hood's Sarsaparilla removes all these humors, cures all these troubles; renovates, strengthens and tones the whole system. This is the testimony of thousands annually.

EMPLOYES GIVE ASSOCIATE A TOKEN

The employes of Salinger Brothers Saturday night presented Herold Everhart, who for two years has been secretary of the company, with a testimonial of their esteem in the form of a gold watch and fob and a beautiful stick pin.

The watch was given by the male employes, and is inscribed, "Presented to H. Everhart by the boys, May 12, 1906," while the fob was the gift of the feminine attaches, the locket on this being inscribed with the initials "H. E." Samuel Meyer, superintendent of the store, made the presentation speech, in the presence of the assembled men and women.

The members of the office force presented Mr. Everhart with a wishbone gold pin, set with pearls.

Mr. Everhart is leaving the service of the company to engage in other business.

A TRUE GUIDE

to an excellent smoke is the "A" (Triangle A) mark. No matter where you are, or what price you pay, this guide will always lead you to cigars of smooth, mellow, unvarying character.

One of the many excellent cigar brands which bear this distinguishing merit-mark is the

RENOWN

CIGAR—FIVE CENTS

This "A" on the box distinguishes the product of the American Cigar Co's new scientific processes of real blending of the leaf before manufacture in place of the ancient hit-or-miss method of mixing during manufacture.

The difference between those processes is proved in the blended richness, mellow flavor and consistent quality of all "A" brands.

WHAT CAUSED BURNING OF SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—One of the causes of the destruction of the greater portion of San Francisco was revealed yesterday when Mayor Schmitz and Engineer Schussler of the Spring Valley Water Company, accompanied by other officials, made a trip down the peninsula to inspect the huge mains of the water company which furnished the city's water supply from Crystal Springs and other lakes. Several big breaks were found in the mains and thus was explained why the city was without sufficient water supply to fight the flames on the days immediately following the earthquake. Engineer Schussler showed where the company had endeavored to obviate such accidents by using pliable trestles, but that even this precaution had not availed in the recent seismic disturbance.

The reservoirs of the company were found to be absolutely safe, and most of the connections re-established. The city is now receiving a supply of water amply sufficient for domestic needs and for fire protection in the unburned districts.

Yesterday was one of unusual quietude, and beyond the arrest of Policeman W. E. Cooney, who had in some unknown manner secured a supply of liquor, there was virtually nothing to disturb the Sabbath. Cooney became involved in a quarrel with a citizen and fired a shot at him. Cooney was deprived of his star and locked up. Chief Dinan declared that he would make an example of him.

Church services were held on a broader scale. Temporary structures were used by congregations that had lost their churches by fire, and where the buildings had not been harmed, indoor worship was resumed.

FORMING COMPANY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—In view of the fact that the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company lost its maps and records of San Francisco business in the recent conflagration a new corporation is being formed with one million dollars capital, and one million dollars surplus for the purpose of protecting its policy holders and agents by taking over all the company's outstanding risks and continuing its business. W. J. Dutton, president of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, said today:

"The new company was formed not on account of any weakness of the old, which is amply able to meet all its obligations and liabilities and have a surplus remaining but only because the loss of these important records make it impossible for the company to file sworn statements with the insurance commissioners based on actual figures.

"This would leave its business open to constant raiding by competitors. The company's old stockholders are to have the option of subscribing up to their present holdings, thus retaining their ownership in the company's valuable plant by practically a voluntary assessment and preserving to such stockholders as could not meet an assessment their interest in the assets remaining to the old company after settling its liabilities.

"All the prominent San Francisco stockholders have already subscribed, and so many applications have been made for such stock as may remain unsubscribed as to indicate a very considerable over subscription.

STREETS ARE UNINJURED

BERKELEY, May 14.—A careful examination of all the sewers and culverts of the town has just been completed by Town Engineer McClure and Superintendent of Streets Turner. They made the discovery that the earthquake of the 18th of last month and the temblors which have followed the big one have not damaged in the least the streets or culverts.

It was feared at first that the larger cement culverts, especially those below Shattuck avenue, had suffered considerably on account of the quake, but investigation proved that these fears were ungrounded.

It was thought that the Euclid avenue hill, which about a year ago caused considerable alarm by shifting several feet and throwing the houses out of plumb would be in a dilapidated condition. But the finest residences were in as good condition as ever. Even the gas and water mains were not in the least injured. Engineer McClure stated, however, that had the shake occurred a few months earlier while the ground was soft from the winter rains that section would have suffered no little damage. Not a water main or a sewer in the city was broken by the seismic disturbance. In speaking of the condition, Engineer McClure said:

"I have just completed a careful examination of the city and find that so far as the streets, culverts and sewers are concerned Berkeley escaped. So far as I have been able to determine not a gas nor water main in this city was broken. The city is indeed fortunate in its earthquake-proof location."

FILE ARTICLES.

BERKELEY, May 14.—Articles of incorporation were filed today by the Trinity Corporation, which will have its principal place of business in Berkeley. According to the articles, the object of the corporation is to establish and maintain houses for boarding and lodging, school and educational purposes; to conduct a farming and stockraising business, and to buy and sell real estate. The directors of Trinity Corporation are Dr. Silar H. Frazier, Louis A. Ward and Judge Robt. Edgar, who is attorney for the corporation.

CHINESE PROBLEM

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—The California Chinese are to make an effort before the highest authorities in the land for complete re-registration of their people. It is said that George L. McKeeby, former Assistant United States District Attorney and a lawyer of high reputation, especially among the Chinese, has been called upon to assist the wealthy celestials in their efforts. McKeeby is to leave for Washington in a few days, to lay the entire case before President Roosevelt.

Soon at his Hollywood home, Mr. McKeeby neither denied nor affirmed that he had such a mission in contemplation.

"I will say, however," he remarked, "that the burning of thousands of certificates in San Francisco makes a very serious problem, not only for the Chinese themselves, but for the federal officials as well, who must spend millions of money in straightening this problem out unless some radical measure is taken for its relief."

The contention of leading Chinese is that more than 25,000 certificates of registration, a great part of which are not duplicated in Washington, were destroyed in the fire which leveled the great Chinatown in the ill-fated city. There are only 50,000 Chinese in California.

Many of the Chinamen are bordering on panic for they realize that should their right to be in the United States be questioned, they have nothing to show their legal residence. For months to come any Chinese who has a possible knowledge of English and American customs will claim, on arrest, that his certificate was destroyed in San Francisco. The problems that now confront the immigration officials are practically endless.

The registration now in effect was made twelve years ago. The Chinese themselves claim that this was imperfect, and in some respects on a wrong basis.

CITY HAS MONEY IT CAN'T SPEND

NEW YORK, May 14.—Mayor McClellan, after looking up the law, says that it will require a constitutional amendment to permit the city to spend the money raised to aid the sufferers in the Mont Pelee disaster. About $1400 was sent in and the names of the subscribers are lost. As all the people near Mont Pelee were killed and there was no call for the money it was not sent forward. Money in the custody of the city to be spent for a specific purpose cannot be spent for anything else.

The money was raised about four years ago, when Mayor Low was at the city hall, and some one lost the names of the givers.

The money has been on deposit for the last four years and is drawing interest at the rate of four per cent. "I am informed by the people in the finance department," said the Mayor yesterday, "that we are likely to have the Martinique fund indefinitely; I am also informed that even at two per cent the fund will double itself every forty-four years, and that in one thousand years this modest fund, if left undisturbed, will amount to the tidy sum of $12,000,000,000."

It has been suggested that there may be a possible claimant for the fund in the person of the negro convict confined in the jail at Martinique at the time of the disaster. So far as known this man was the only human survivor of the disaster. He joined a circus as a freak the year after the disaster.

CALIFORNIA POET TO WRITE OF RUIN

BERKELEY, May 14.—Charles Keeler, the noted California poet, is at present working on a small book, which will give a graphic and accurate story of the earthquake and fire that ruined San Francisco. The account will also contain a description of the herculean efforts now being made by the army, Red Cross and citizens generally to care for the homeless of the great city. The book is to be printed by Paul Elder, the San Francisco publisher, whose plant was destroyed by the conflagration. It will be the first publication issued by this firm since the fire.

The book will be splendidly illustrated with photographs, and will be printed on the presses of the Standard Publishing Company in Berkeley.

Mr. Keeler was in the midst of the great disaster following the earthquake and took active part in the work to succor the suffering. Mr. Keeler enjoys world-wide fame. His books of verse and prose have won for him a place among the foremost literary people of the day.

REMOVE PATIENTS FROM HOSPITAL.

BERKELEY, May 14.—Hearst Hall is not to be used as a maternity hospital for refugees from San Francisco after today. Arrangements have been completed for the removal of all patients now in the hall to a building owned by the University, called the Meyer's house, on College avenue, close to the College avenue entrance of the campus.

There are now twenty-four patients in Hearst Hall, and noble work has been done there by physicians of the college town. The University girls have ungrudgingly given all their time to this work, acting in the capacity of nurses.

BRAUNHART IS DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Samuel Braunhart died at the German Hospital yesterday morning. Some months prior to the fire Mr. Braunhart, who was ill, was a patient at the Adler Hospital on Green street. After weeks of sickness the former State Senator and Supervisor was able to be about, but his convalescence was slow. At the time of the fire Braunhart, who was still weak, had a relapse, and since the 18th of April he had been kept alive by the intelligent services of Dr. E. O. Jellinek.

Samuel Braunhart had been a part of the political history of California since the time of the sandlot and Dennis Kearney. He was then a traveling salesman for cigars, was a member of the Constitutional Convention, chosen on the Workingmen's ticket, and was afterward elected to the Assembly on the Buckley and Rainey ticket. Later on, when Sullivan and Dwyer were the leaders of Democratic politics in San Francisco, Braunhart was chosen a member of the Senate from the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Assembly districts. At the expiration of Braunhart's term in the Senate he was appointed a wharfinger by Governor Budd, but soon resigned the place to accept appointment from James D. Phelan, the then Mayor, as Supervisor. Later on Braunhart was defeated for Railroad Commissioner by Adam Andrew, but was elected to the Board of Supervisors on the McNab ticket. Last year he was defeated, although a nominee of the Republican and Democratic organizations on the fusion ticket.

Up to a day or so Mr. Braunhart retained his remarkable mentality, but since Saturday his mind wandered until death came. The dead man leaves no family in this country. He was a native of Prussia, about fifty-five years of age.

SEARCHES FOR HER RELATIVES

Exhausted from aimless wandering about the streets in search of her relatives, Mrs. H. E. W. Cummings, an aged woman who says her home is in San Francisco, was found yesterday afternoon sitting in a poultry yard belonging to W. Hanna at 166 Athol avenue. How she came to this place or how she reached this city Mrs. Cummings is unable to tell. Through her story is woven a most peculiar thread of mystery.

The woman is under the impression that she was brought from San Francisco by her daughter, whose name she states is Mrs. Preble and resides in Alameda. But Mrs. Cummings, though lucid enough about some of the features of her wanderings, cannot say how her daughter left her, where she left her, or why. She cannot remember how she came to walk to the Hanna house on Athol street, where exhausted she finally sank to the ground.

The police have undertaken to locate Mrs. Preble or her husband in Alameda. Mrs. Cummings also states that she has a son named Frank Cummings, who was a member of the San Francisco fire department. She states that he was stationed at the Howard-street firehouse, but she has not seen him since the earthquake. She did live in San Francisco at Sutter and Broderick streets.

The Hannas have kindly volunteered to care for the old lady until her relatives can be found, so that she need not remain in the city prison. In this she is more fortunate than another old lady, Mrs. Anna Nesbit, who wandered away in a similar manner about a week ago and has been in the jail since then, because her son, William Nesbit, also a San Francisco fireman, cannot be located. The police believe that they must send her to the county hospital.

MANY CARS RAN SUNDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The United Railroads yesterday had 300 cars in operation in the unburned district and running to the ferry, which is just half the number of cars, including cable and electric, which it operated previous to the fire. Manager Chapman expects to have 100 additional cars running within a fortnight and the number will be increased when the Sutter and Polk and Larkin streets cable systems are reconstructed into overhead trolley lines.

The company is preparing to immediately install service on the Valencia-street line, from Twenty-eighth street to Market and the ferry, the Third and Kearny street line from North Beach to Third and Townsend streets, the Masonic-avenue line, from the Affiliated Colleges to Eddy and Market streets, via Fillmore and Page streets, the California street and Cliff House line and the McAllister-street line, from the Chutes, via Fulton, McAllister and Market streets to the ferry. All these roads, so Manager Chapman says, will be running within the coming week or ten days and will relieve the congestion existing on the twenty roads where our service has been resumed.

TO TOUR WORLD ON RELIGIOUS MISSION

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—Representatives of the local clergy of various phases of religious work united yesterday in a large farewell service to William T. Ellis of this city, who is setting out on a round-the-world investigation of religious conditions and of foreign missions.

Mr. Ellis has been commissioned as a special representative by the National Red Cross Society, the International Y. M. C. A., the International Sunday School Association and by most of the other general religious organizations of America, as well as by the leading denominational mission boards.

ALAMEDA SALOONS CLOSED ON SUNDAY

ALAMEDA, May 14.—The Alameda saloons were closed all day yesterday, and will be every Sunday hereafter until further notice. Chief of Police Conrad has made the order.

It was a noticeable fact that a large number of drunks were jailed last Sunday and the present order is supposed to be the result of this.

ACCUSED OF BEATING WOMAN BRUTALLY

ALAMEDA, May 14.—Because he is alleged to have brutally beat a helpless woman, Ed Waldier, otherwise known as "Hayseed," is locked up at the city jail, charged with battery. The man was arrested by Policeman Brown. He is accused of having assaulted a Miss Kennedy, and it is stated that after striking her and knocking her down, he left her lying in the street. He is in jail in lieu of bail.

AUTO IS HIS PULPIT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Archbishop Montgomery yesterday preached from an automobile. On Telegraph Hill and at the foot of Montgomery street he addressed the homeless Italians who had gathered to do homage at altars temporarily erected on the ruins of their churches. It was an unexpected visit, particularly on Telegraph Hill, where the services were held in the open air, and the reception tendered him was wonderfully enthusiastic.

The zealous Italian pastor had administered the blessing and bade them go in peace, when the auto steamed up to the gathering which was about to disperse. As soon as the figure of the Archbishop was discerned there was an instant motion of the faithful to fall on their knees. They wanted the blessing of the head of the diocese. The flock wanted the guidance from the shepherd. On the dust amid the ruins they knelt down. Half in reverence, half in awe they awaited the words of comfort. The Archbishop with a wave of his hand bade the faithful to arise. When the jostling of those who were anxious to get near the speaker had ceased, the Archbishop spoke.

His first words were those of comfort. He spoke of the disaster and the misfortunes it has brought upon the oldest district in the city. He referred to the historic site on which they were gathered, and then went on to say:

"You will have to bear up with a great many privations. The present conditions of the city demand that you receive these with fortitude and patience. Stringent ordinances have been passed by those in authority. By all of these it is necessary not only faithfully but willingly to abide. One of the most meritorious of these ordinances is the suppression of the liquor traffic. This measure should be an object lesson to the entire city and State, I earnestly hope that it will last longer than the ruins that made it necessary.

"At present we have a great duty to perform. Whenever work can be procured there should be willing hands to seize upon the task. Men of business should make great endeavors to re-establish themselves as soon as possible. The material things of life are the things that now press most strongly upon us. Nevertheless, the higher and spiritual concerns of life should not escape us. As we read in the Epistle of St. James, 'Every best and perfect gift comes from above; from the Father of lights in whom there is no change or shadow of alteration.' Now the best and most perfect gifts are not those which we esteem such. We surely would not seek sickness or misfortune. Rather we shun them. And this is likewise true of the disaster of earthquake and fire through which we have just passed. Nevertheless, in an inscrutable Providence, these things may be, by God's permission, valuable assets in the completeness of life. Because life is not complete with this earth. Life on earth is only the beginning. And should we become so wholly absorbed in the thought that pursuit of the present good is the only thing worth while to such an extent as to become oblivious of the higher life, then I should say without hesitation that the fire and earthquake may be reckoned among the blessings for those in whom it will bring back the thought and service of God."

After the discourse on Telegraph Hill the Archbishop proceeded in the auto to another station at the foot of Montgomery street. Again he addressed them from the vantage position of the automobile. He said that he wished to be close to his people, and this journey into the Italian district was for the purpose of acquainting himself thoroughly with their privations, that he might in a manner be able to assist them. Though many of the congregation were ignorant of the language the Archbishop spoke, they all listened with rapt attention. When he left they stood with uncovered heads until the fast-moving auto had disappeared from sight.

MEN'S CLUB OF ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, May 14.—The Men's Club will meet next Tuesday evening in its rooms in the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Chestnut street and Santa Clara avenue. C. R. Smith is president of the organization and F. Winsor the secretary.

This will be the first club to hold a regular meeting since the earthquake. Following is the novel reading matter, sent on a post card to the members:

A carload of sunshine has just been received.

The club orchestra will be present.

Also singers.

Also Milton Schwartz.

There will be some good speakers from Oakland.

Possibly there will be coffee—if the Relief Committee permit.

The club will act as an employment bureau for its members.

Be sure and come and contribute your share of good cheer.

BARTENDER AND BARBER IN MIX-UP

ALAMEDA, May 14.—Sam Jones, a bartender, has been arrested at the instance of Morris Barron, a Park street barber, who alleges that Jones struck him. The men, it is stated, got into a heated argument and Jones became belligerent. He is now out on $50 cash bail.

CURIOUS COUPLE

ALAMEDA, May 14—One of the most curious couples among the refugees in this city are Mr. and Mrs. Deck Yee Wong, the husband a Chinaman and the wife a white woman of human descent. The child has an American appearance with the exception of its slant eye.

Deck Yee Wong and his white wife lived in Waverly Place in the heart of San Francisco's Chinatown. He had a restaurant there, and was prospering greatly when the fire wiped out his business. Before starting the restaurant the Chinaman was a cook in various private residences in San Francisco. The woman also is a cook and the two cooks, following the same vocation, though of wide racial difference, apparently found much in common. The man was well-to-do and industrious and his color and nationality did not seem to be a cardinal sin in the eyes of the woman. She had never seen a Chinaman until she came to California from Germany, some four years ago. She worked in various places, first at Chico, but later drifted to San Francisco.

When Deck Yee Wong found his friendship was welcomed by his fellow cook he made rapid progress along the trail of love. The stumbling block which threatened to blast his hopes was when he applied for a marriage license. The law of California forbids the inter-marriage of whites and the Chinese. It would have been insurmountable in most instances. As a matter of fact it was not surmounted by these two. They went around it and left it still unsolved by the rest of the world. The Chinaman could get no marriage license. Without the license there could be no marriage ceremony. But the man from across one sea and the woman from across another, took the law into their own hands and set up housekeeping as man and wife without the incumberance of a marriage license, a marriage certificate, or the cost of a minister to perform the ceremony. This was two years ago.

The baby was very young when the earthquake and fire came, but it stood the strenuous times when San Francisco burned, in heroic fashion, and is apparently none the worse for wear. He is alternately loved by his Oriental father and his white mother. Every morning the mother walks from her place of refuge on Eagle avenue to the Elks Camp to get milk for the baby.

As she told her story yesterday morning she spoke with a naivette that seemed to cover the bare statement of her illegal marriage with a softening cloud. She said her husband ascertained that he could get a marriage license in New York City but that the long journey and expense seemed unnecessary. She consulted with some of her friends, she said, and the latter assured her it would be all right to marry without a license. So Miss Freda Kreiss became Mrs. Deck Yee Wong, though under the law she is still Miss Freda Kreiss. Whatever the opinion of the marriage that was no marriage, the fact remains that Deck Yee Wong did not desert his companion in the hour of disaster, like the white man who is making heavy the hours of the woman he lived with for eleven years, only to deny her when the crucial moment came. Deck Yee Wong is looking for work. He has applied at various employment sources and is still trying. His wife eagerly asked the newspaper man if he knew where her husband could get a job.

The wife said her marriage to a Chinaman was nothing unusual for, she asserted, there were a good many white women married to Chinamen, and living in Chinatown before the fire. She said that two of these strangely mated couples arrived from China just a few weeks before the fire and went to live at the corner of Sacramento and Kearny streets.

Mrs. Deck Yee Wong is now living with a group of refugee Chinese. Among them are Chinese women of wealth. She piloted a party of them through the town the other day. They were attired in costly silk and wore many jewels. Some of them are of the famed small-feet class. One of them hobbled along Park street yesterday on feet that were little more than stumps. They seemed suitable for a child of six or seven years, looked painful to the observer, but were evidently a source of much joy and great pride to the owner.

NO ARRESTS IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, May 14.—Not an arrest was made yesterday or Saturday night, and the police attribute the good behavior to the fact that the saloons were closed all day. Many men came into town expecting to secure liquor, but they were disappointed. Many flasks were in evidence, however, and it is supposed these were secured in Oakland.

Chief of Police Conrad will keep the saloons closed each Sunday for some time. He expects in this way to discourage the coming into this city of an element which wishes only to secure liquor to get drunk.

Last Sunday the saloons were open and the police station was filled with drunks and peace disturbers as a result.

OUTSIDERS TO RECEIVE HELP

SACRAMENTO, May 14.—Rollin P. Grant, cashier of the New York National Exchange Bank, has placed a fund of $20,000 in the hands of George W. Pettler, vice-president of the California Bankers' Association, the money to be used for the relief of the earthquake sufferers outside of San Francisco. Mr Pettler says the cash probably will go to persons in Santa Rosa, San Jose and other places, who, because of location, do not receive any aid from the general relief fund of San Francisco.

SEQUOIA CLUB MEETING.

A general meeting of all members of the Sequoia Club, for the election of officers and the consideration of plans for the future, will be held next Wednesday evening, May 16th, at the residence of Mrs. L. H. Bryan, 2422 Buchanan street, San Francisco, California.

ESTIMATED DAMAGE.

ALAMEDA, May 14.—An estimate has just been made of the damage done to the local Masonic Temple and it is thought that $2000 or $2500 will cover the loss. It was not thought at first that the damage was so extensive.

INSURANCE MUDDLE

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Tribune today says: Emory McClintock, vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who is in charge of the company's agency business in all parts of the world, was astonished last night when shown the cable message from London saying that the North British and Mercantile Company might take over policies of the Mutual Life amounting to $46,000,000. He said he was not prepared to believe that the British company had agreed to do everything it was represented as having offered. When Mr. McClintock had recovered from his surprise he said:

"That is certainly remarkable, but it may not be true, you know. I feel confident that the policyholders will not enter into any such arrangement in any great number. A very small proportion of the policyholders will be deceived by it. It would be the worst thing they could do. They would get no more safety and worse results. Any policyholder who has been in the Mutual Life for any length of time would lose the benefit of all he has paid into the company. In the first place, although that cable message makes announcement to the contrary, the North British and Mercantile will not accept such policyholders without medical examination."

That D. C. Haldeman, former manager in London for the Mutual, and who, it is announced, will join the North British and Mercantile Company, could take over much of the business of the Mutual to another company, Mr. McClintock said was preposterous. He added that he did not see how any respectable company would engage in such an enterprise. A week ago Mr. McClintock had arranged to sail for Europe on Tuesday of next week in order to try to straighten out the situation in England and persuade the French government to rescind some of the restrictions it has placed on American insurance companies doing business there. He said the news from London would not hasten his departure.

When this news was communicated to Samuel Untermeyer he is reported to have hurried dispatches to London advising the various interests he represents to try to persuade the policyholders not to surrender their policies. Mr. Untermyer acted in behalf of the international policyholders' association.

CARL SCHURZ PASSES AWAY

NEW YORK, May 14.—Carl Schurz, widely known as a publicist and former cabinet member, died at his home in this city at 4:35 o'clock this morning. Death was due to a complication of diseases following an attack of stomach trouble, which became acute on Thursday last. In spite of brief periods of seeming improvement Mr. Schurz slowly failed, and yesterday afternoon sank into a state of coma, which continued until the end. At the bedside were a son, Carl L., and two daughters, Marianne and Agatha; Edward L. Pretorious, Mr. Schurz's business partner, and Doctors Jacobi and Strauss.

Mr. Schurz was 76 years old, having been born in Cologne, March 2, 1829. His residence here was at 24 East Ninety-first.

Forced to flee from the land of his birth before he had attained his majority, Carl Schurz soon became, and for more than half a century remained, one of the striking figures in the public life of the land of his adoption. Born in the village of Libelar, near Cologne, in 1829, Schurz became interested in the revolutionary movement in Germany while attending the University of Bonn, and when the uprising came in 1849 he served as a private in the ranks of the insurgents. He was with General Tideman when the latter surrendered the fortress of Rastadt in July of that year, and made an almost miraculous escape through the sewer connecting with the Rhine, and fled to Switzerland. A year later he returned to Germany, under an assumed name, for the purpose of liberating his friend Professor Kinkel, who had been taken a prisoner at the surrender of the fortress and sentenced to life imprisonment. This daring and romantic project was carried to a successful conclusion and created a sensation throughout Europe. His marriage to Margaret Mayer, the daughter of a prominent merchant, in 1852, was an indirect outgrowth of the sensational rescue of his friend from prison. That exploit has been made one of the features of "Die Von Hohenstein," by Friedrich Spielhagen, a popular novelist of that time. In the story Schurz figures as Wolfgang von Hohenstein, and Kinkel as Dr. Munzer. Schurz's acquaintance with the woman who became his wife was traceable to the fame of his exploit as described by Spielhagen.

Soon after his marriage Schurz came to this country, locating first at Philadelphia. Three years later he removed to Wisconsin, allied himself with the Fremont forces in the campaign, and took part in the campaign of the following year. During the succeeding twenty years he was one of the prominent figures in the political history of the country. He went to Spain as United States Minister in 1861, later resigning to return and serve in the Civil War, during which he earned the title of Major General. In 1869 he was elected to the United States Senate from Missouri, being the first German-born citizen to become a member of the upper house of Congress. In the meantime he had engaged in newspaper work both at Washington and in the West, and had transferred his residence from Wisconsin to Missouri, where he became joint proprietor of the Westliche Post in St. Louis, being associated with Emil Pretorious.

His career in the Senate was a brilliant one. By his unswerving course in support of independent principles, however, he became estranged from the Republican party, with which he was then identified and retired from the Senate in 1875.

Popular Demonstrations in the Russian Parliament.

While the imperial decree governing the lower house of the Russian parliament strips it of all power as a legislative body, it is evidently determined to make its influence felt in the councils of the Empire. This was evinced in the proceedings of the second day of the session when congratulatory messages from political exiles in Siberia evoked tremendous applause, in which the majority of the member were joined by the spectators crowding the galleries. This popular demonstration was followed by an effort to get action on a motion providing for replies to these messages favoring amnesty for political prisoners, which was ruled out of order. Indeed, if it had been passed, it would probably have been censored by the council of the Empire, whose members have a seat in the house. These are clothed with, practically, autocratic authority as the representatives of the Czar who has reserved to himself the right of review of all of the acts of the Douma and the power to dissolve it at a moment's notice.

But demonstrations like that of Saturday clearly indicate that the new parliament will not confine itself submissively to the imperial program cut out for it. Its creation was forced upon the Czar through the general demand for a constitutional government and to allay the popular unrest which that demand produced throughout the Empire. The Douma may be prevented by the rules governing its deliberations from passing any reform measure; but the majority of its members are bent upon reaching results by indirection which cannot be reached by direct processes. For example: the reply of the Constitutional Democrats to the speech from the throne will declare for a strictly constitutional government, full amnesty for political exiles, universal suffrage, equality of all classes before the law and abolition of the death penalty. Sooner or later, the imperial policy of repression of the freedom of speech and action in parliament will lead to a clash which may result in the dissolution of that body. But that will be merely another step toward the final attainment by the Russian people of the right of representation in the affairs of the government. It may have to be acquired by wading through more of the blood of patriots than has already been shed; but its ultimate accomplishment is sure to prevail. The movement in favor of reform has gained too much strength to be successfully suppressed as is shown by the fearlessness of the radicals in the new parliament.

Denver has been visited by a tornado which seems to have been as active in its way as a well developed California earthquake, judging from the extent of its operations. It razed buildings, wrecked trolley cars smashed windows, leveled hundreds of telegraph and telephone poles and indulged in much other destructive work. While still suffering from the effects of the recent temblor California has cause for self-congratulation that she does not at least lie within the tornado belt.

A subscriber, evidently an admirer of Speaker Cannon, inquires with huge sarcasm if THE TRIBUNE is a Republican paper. It is If belief in the policies and principles of the Republican party entitle the paper to call itself Republican, but it is not if the test is a belief that Uncle Joe Cannon is the best and most available man for the Republicans to nominate in 1908. Our subscriber should not confound individuals with parties nor practices with principles. Doubtless our friend does not believe Senator Platt or Senator Depew to be the right man to head the Republican ticket in 1908 yet both are Republicans. Speaker Cannon is infinitely superior to either of them, but that by no means implies that he is not greatly inferior to other Republicans.

Selfish, Unpatriotic Employers.

Governor Pardee's rebuke of those employers in other parts of the State who have threatened their employes in the National Guard with a loss of their positions unless they immediately return to their employment is timely and well stated. Such employers are not only selfish and unreasonable, but unpatriotic. They are actually triggering at the pillars of public safety by punishing the men who answer the call of the State when extraordinary measures for the maintenance of order are necessary. In his letter the Governor says:

"But how about the employers and property owners whose interests the National Guard is so often called upon to protect? Should not they also make some of the sacrifices? Or are they to receive only the benefits from the maintenance of the National Guard, while the poor young fellows in the ranks make all the sacrifices by which the employers and property owners profit? Do you think this view would be a fair one? I cannot say that I do. It appears to me that he would be a very poor kind of employer and a very selfish sort of man who should refuse to be inconvenienced through the absence of a clerk or laborer when the latter is out doing duty as a soldier in order that this employer's property, or some other employer's property, may be protected."

The names of men who discharge their employes for serving in the National Guard should be publicly proclaimed that the people may know who they are and what business they are engaged in. Publicity will prove a salutary check to such exhibitions of unpatriotic selfishness, for popular disapproval will make itself felt in a way that will be wholesome and convincing. It is to be hoped, however, that the number of those who place their own convenience above the public good is comparatively small.

Senator Penrose was wrong in calling Senator Tillman an ass. Tillman admitted being a mule, and Penrose should let it go at that. A mule is a more cantankerous beast than a donkey.

Fair Play for the Underwriters.

We hardly think the strictures the San Francisco journals are passing on the insurance companies is justified. So far from showing a disposition to evade their liabilities and delay adjustment of losses the insurance men appear to be proceeding with remarkable diligence, and their talk does not indicate any purpose to welch on their obligations. This should be gratifying instead of being a cause for alarm and discontent. The charge made by one of the San Francisco papers that the underwriters are "hiding in Oakland" is absurd and misleading. It is calculated to excite apprehension where there should be confidence and to provoke antagonism where there should be none.

The insurance companies have already paid out considerable sums for fire losses in San Francisco, and the general process of adjustment seems to be proceeding with unusual rapidity. It is necessary, however, that the underwriters come to an understanding with each other as well as the policyholders in cases where property is insured in half a dozen or more companies. In many cases a portion of the risks assumed by the companies doing business in California has been reinsured in foreign or Eastern companies outside the jurisdiction of this State. This fact must be considered in passing judgment on the insurance situation.

It is essential that the losses should be equitably adjusted and paid promptly but the loss has been so sweeping and general, and has involved so many interests, that the work of adjustment is complex and beset with many difficulties. Nevertheless, so far as our observation goes the underwriters are anxious for an early and satisfactory settlement. They keenly realize that delayed payment or an adjustment unsatisfactory to the property owners and business men in San Francisco would shake confidence in the integrity of insurance the world over, and would therefore greatly injure the insurance business. With a very few minor exceptions, they propose to remain in the San Francisco field, and understand fully that they cannot do so if the adjustment of losses is unfair to the policyholder or payment withheld to force a scaling down of policies.

In any event it does not seem wise at this stage to advertise abroad an apprehension, not well founded, that the insurance companies do not propose to act fairly and honestly. A report of that character is calculated to do much harm in retarding the general restoration in San Francisco. It is best not to be hasty or ill-tempered under the circumstances.

RUSSIAN WORKMEN MAKE GOOD SHOWING

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.—The workmen of St. Petersburg today made an imposing showing in their May Day celebration. Practically every factory, mill and shop in the city was idle, over 200,000 men joining the demonstration.

Early reports from the interior showed that work generally was suspended in the provincial cities of Russia proper.

While the leaders here professed their intention to avoid collisions, the radical element, which is boycotting parliament, determined to celebrate the day with manifestations and the men out of work decided to parade in the industrial sections early in the day with flags bearing inscriptions reading, "Liberty and work for those out of work," the gravest fears were entertained that the day would not pass without bloodshed.

The police posted notice that no more manifestations would be permitted. Large reserves of police armed with rifles were massed in the industrial quarters and detachments of infantry and cavalry, though they were kept out of sight, were posted at strategic points, shortly before noon came the news that Vice-Admiral Kuzioh, the commander of the port, had been assassinated at the new admiralty works as a result of his attempt[illegible] to force the employes to work all day instead of celebrating May Day.

S. S. S. THE STANDARD TONIC

The ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, and the method of combining and preparing them so that they gently and pleasantly build up and strengthen every part of the body, make it the ideal tonic for a disordered condition of the system. Every one feels the need of a tonic sometimes. The system seems to get "out of gear," the appetite becomes fickle, the energies are depressed, sleep is not restful or refreshing, and the entire body has a nervous, worn-out feeling. When the system is in this depleted, run-down condition it must be aided by a tonic, and S. S. S. is recognized everywhere as the standard. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their gentle action as well as their invigorating effect on the system, it will not disagreeably affect any of the delicate members or tissues as do most of the so-called tonics on the market which contain potash or some other harmful mineral ingredient. These derange the stomach and digestion, unfavorably affect the bowels or otherwise damage the health. S. S. S. tones up the stomach and digestion, improves the appetite, produces refreshing sleep, rids the body of that tired, run-down feeling, and supplies tone and vigor to the entire system. It re-establishes the healthy circulation of the blood, acts more promptly and gives better and more lasting results than any other tonic, and because of its vegetable purity is an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. S. S. S. acts admirably in cases of dyspepsia, indigestion and other stomach troubles, and after using it that uncomfortable feeling of fullness, dizziness or drowsiness, after eating, are no longer felt. Not only is S. S. S. the greatest of all tonics but possesses purifying and alterative properties, and if there is a taint in the blood it will promptly remove every trace and restore perfect health. In selecting your tonic for this year do not experiment but get S. S. S., the recognized standard.

KAHN'S—THE ALWAYS BUSY CORNER

A greater store for greater Oakland

We stand at the threshold of the greatest business development this city has ever known. It is to be a like unto the development of the modern steel skyscraper in that with great rapidity of growth there shall be a strength and permanency to the completed structure (Greater Oakland) that ages cannot destroy.

Thousands of strangers are in our city—hundreds visit this store daily. Many of these people will remain with us, providing their wants are filled in a business-like manner, and the city develops modern business methods in proportion to its development of population.

This development of business methods is a matter of individual responsibility. The grocer on the corner must do his part—he can treat all with courtesy, can discontinue his shirt-sleeve service. The butcher can help by adding an inviting cleanliness to his little place of business, and so with the baker and candlestick maker.

The big stores can do their part, and Kahn's have started already.

With probably the greatest department store business in California (with the exception of San Francisco) to start with, with nearly fifty thousand feet of floor space; with a sale force numbering well into the hundreds; with a stock of immense proportions, selected with infinite care; with a business system of most practical merit, Kahn's began the march toward Greater Oakland.

But we see improvements can be made—and we are making them. We are buying stocks as we never bought before; we are making mechanical improvements throughout the whole big store, we are adding to our already splendid force a corps of the best salespeople money can hire.

We are making Kahn's a bigger store by making it a better store; we're building a business NOW for Greater Oakland, and when the day dawns upon an Oakland population of half a million you'll find Kahn's still improving, still making friends, still getting better in every way that merchants can improve.

It will be in the future, as it has been in the past—Kahn's just a little ahead of the times—Kahn's, the busiest store in Oakland—Kahn's, the store your mother shopped in, and the store your children's children will best love to visit for all their daily wants.

DESTRUCTION OF CITY.

The following is self-explanatory:
San Francisco, Cal., Mayor's Office,
May 12, 1906.

Leon Album, 347 Broadway, Oakland—Dear Sir: The poem enclosed by you in your esteemed favor of the 10th inst., came to hand this morning. I thank you for the same and shall be glad to keep it on file in the office.

Yours truly,
E. E. SCHMITZ, Mayor.

DESTRUCTION OF SAN FRANCISCO

By Leon Album.

(Dedicated to Hon. E. E. Schmitz.)

Leave me to myself and to my boundless grief;
Not one of you doth know how deeply aches my heart;
Not one doth understand the agony and pain
That pierce, like poisoned arrows, my sorely tried soul.
I feel forsaken, as if no human eye or ear
Could see or hear me; as if no human mind
Could probe and measure the boundless depth
Of my misfortune so great and overwhelming;
Oh, proud imperial city, it is of thee I weep.
I see thy wide, imposing streets, thy mansions fair
Thy schools and public buildings all thickly wrapped
In a blaze of raging fire destructive and consuming.
I hear the sighs, the groans of men and women,
I see the tears trickling down their cheeks,
I see their faces despondent, sad and sunken,
Furrowed with the mark of overwhelming grief.
I see grim death stalking all about,
Mowing down its victims with weapons rude and novel,
And the quaking earth as it opens wide its mouth
To swallow them within its seething bowels.
I see the refugees run aimlessly about,
Driven from place to place by the ever-spreading fire;
And little children striding up the hills,
Mindless of fatigue, of burning thirst and hunger.
Laid in ashes is the city, once beautiful and proud.
The abodes of men are one great heap of ruins,
And underneath, the bodies of once happy dwellers
Are crushed by the foundations they once so proudly built.
Oh, great misfortune! Wide and boundless like the sea.
How thou didst touch with agony supreme
The hearts of a happy, peaceful population,
And didst wipe away the toil of so many, many years!
Oh, San Francisco, house of mourning, vale of tears,
Majestic still, with all that heap of ruins!
Thy vanished glory, it shall arise again,
And, phoenix-like, from the ashes thou shalt rise.
"Console yourselves, sons and daughters of the Golden Gate,"
Saith Eugene Schmitz, your magistrate and guide;
"Arise with strength renewed and lend your energies
To build a grander city over the ruins of the old."

CONGRESS MAKES A NEW RECORD

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The files of the index clerks at the State Department shows that the first session of the fifty-ninth Congress has broken all records in the matter of completed legislation up to this moment. Already more than 3000 laws have been enacted, which is between 700 and 800 more than in any preceding session up to the beginning of the month of May. The greater part of this mass of law was made up of bills of a private nature and only 250 of the total enactments were general laws.

RIOT ENDS MEETING

CHICAGO, May 14.—A meeting over which John Alexander Dowie presided at Zion City Sunday afternoon was broken up by a number of followers of the opposing faction, assisted by several outsiders, and before the crowd dispersed a free fight occurred. Dowie was addressing the audience, numbering about 600, and made the statement that the overseers of the Voliva faction were thieves and robbers. At once a number of those about the house were on their feet shouting "No, no; you are the robber; why don't you pay your debts?" The disturbance became so violent that a The guard took hold of an old gray- The guard took hold of an old gray-headed man who was loudest in his demonstrations for Dowie to pay his obligations and this was a signal for a free fight. A dozen men seized the guard and were about to drag him down the aisle, when Gladstone Dowie and Deacon Arrington mounted the platform and called upon the audience not to create a disturbance and to take their seats.

After quiet had been restored Dowie again attempted to proceed with the meeting, but he was jeered and called traitor and robber until he finally decided to dismiss the audience.

A riot call was sent to the police station and Captain of Police Walker with four men hurried to the tabernacle in a wagon. By the time the police arrived most of the audience had left the building. In the midst of the trouble, Burleigh, the negro attendant of Dowie, rushed upon the platform and placed himself at Dowie's side while those of the uniformed Zion guards who have taken sides with Dowie formed a line of defense in front of the platform. No attempt at violence, however, was made against Dowie.

Dowie was so weak that he had to be carried from his carriage into the tabernacle by two attendants.

At a later meeting called for Dowie adherents only, but which was invaded by a large number of those who were riotous at the former meeting, Dowie precipitated a second general disturbance. He caused to be read a letter from one of his supporters stating that the writer's wife had passed safely through the crisis of a serious illness while Dowie prayed for her. This fact Dowie compared with the case of Mrs. Cantel, wife of an overseer, who died last Friday without medical attention, while Voliva and his medical supporters were offering prayers for her recovery. Dowie declared that he feared that the woman died because she had associated herself with the rebels. There was a storm of hisses and shouts of "shame."

"There is death in store for more of you if this rebellion keeps on," continued Dowie. Again the people sprang from their chairs shouting and gesticulating, until the tumult became so general that Dowie was obliged to bring the meeting to a close.

FORGOT TO PUT IN PRIMARY DEPARTMET.

BERKELEY, May 14.—The builders of the ne Evangel Baptist Church on Dwight way, near Telegraph avenue, have overlooked the erection of a primary department of its Sunday school, hence the building that was made ready for church services last week in four days and a half has been enlarged.

The electric light fixtures have been installed, so that hereafter, till the church edifice proper is erected, all th eservices of the church will be held in this new and most complete place of worship.

NEED GO-CARTS.

BERKELEY, May 14.—One of the great needs of the many refugees are baby carriages and go-carts. The committee in charge of the work has been securing the city in a vain endeavor to satisfy this want. The relief workers on Kittredge street are constantly sending out appeals for all discarded infant conveyances, but the demand is so great that [illegible] is not enough of the supply to

CORPSE IS FOUND

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.—The mystery of the fate of Father Gapon apparently was cleared up yesterday by the discovery of a corpse, which has almost positively been identified as that of the former priest, hanging in the upper chamber of a lonely villa in the summer suburb of Osarki, Finland. The villa was sold April 8 and a deposit paid by an unknown man from St. Petersburg, who, after visiting the house several times in company with a young New York man, disappeared April 11, taking the key with him. The proprietor of the villa, alarmed at the non-appearance of the tenant, notified the police, who entered the house. Breaking down a door they were confronted by a body in a long coat hanging from a nail, the feet touching the floor. Decomposition of the face made positive identification difficult, but the features resembled those of Gapon, and the clothing corresponded with that worn by the missing labor leader. As the usual symptoms of strangulation were absent, it is conjectured that the man was killed elsewhere and his body brought to the villa on the night of April 10. This would agree with the date of the execution of Gapon given in information of the secret police and with the death sentence of the former priest as announced in recent dispatches from Berlin.

BLIND MOTHER FINDS HER SON

BERKELEY, May 14.—Detective Jamison of the local police, has located Marvyin Jeffry, who ran away from his home at 1563 Eighth street, Oakland. Young Jeffry left his home on April 26, and his parents were most anxious to find him. The father is an invalid and the mother is totally blind.

Officer Jamison was informed Thursday afternoon of the lad's disappearance. He spent portions of two days in looking for the youth. Jeffry was at last located standing in the doorway of a stable, where he was employed. Jamison notified the mother, and she came to Berkeley and persuaded her wayward son to accompany her home.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros., Broadway, corner 7th, and Washington, corner 12th. Price 50c.

Constipation, the fruitful source of many other complaints, is quickly cured by taking Lash's Kidney and Liver Bitters.

IN GRAIN MARKET

Conditions in the local grain market are still unsettled pending the resumption of official trading in futures, but there is a good movement in cash wheat at Port Costa, where the grain trade of the State is centered at present. Millers in the interior are purchasing freely, and some of the plants are working to full capacity day and night trying to catch up with the demand for flour from points where stocks have been allowed to run down since the disaster. Quotations for wheat show some revision generally in the direction of higher prices, and oats rule very strong under limited supplies and the filling of government orders. The Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., reports the area under winter wheat remaining in cultivation on May 1 to have been about 29,624,000 acres. This is 6 per cent less than the area reported harvested last year. The average condition of the growing winter wheat crop on May 1 was 91, as compared with 85 on April 1, 1906; 92 on May 1, 1905, and 76 on the same date in 1904.

POLICY HOLDERS IN COMBINE

LONDON, May 14.—The British policyholders of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York are being organized into rival companies. Those following the plan outlined by the "Protection Committee," headed by D. C. Haldeman, the former London manager of the Mutual, today flocked to the offices of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company, where they filled out papers transferring their policies to the British concern. Mr. Haldeman claims to have a majority of the large holders on his side and expects the smaller ones to follow their lead.

H. E. Duncan, superintendent of the foreign department of the Mutual, who succeeded Mr. Haldeman in the London office of the company, did not hear of the plans until this morning when he immediately cabled to New York and is awaiting a reply before opening a campaign to hold the business. He promises that the campaign will be an active one.

Mr. Duncan anticipated that many holders will continue as policyholders of the Mutual.

ROUTINE WORK OF SUPERVISORS

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning all the members were present Chairman Mitchell occupied the chair for the first time since he was injured in the earthquake at San Jose He moved around on crutches, but declared that he was recovering from the injuries sustained.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Applications for saloon licenses were referred to the license committee as follows Chris Petersen Estudillo Station, Eden Township G H Maloney, Pleasant Valley and Linden avenue, John Tabor, East Fourteenth, near Blaine avenue

License to sell liquor was granted to P Monighetti, Sunol

The requisition of County Superintendent of Education Crawford for school fund books was granted

NEW STREETS.

A deed from the Derby Estate Company to the county was ordered filed. In consideration of ten dollars, the company grants the county right-of-way on Thirtieth street and Thirty-first avenue and Main street near Fruitvale avenue and the Southern Pacific Railroad.

CHANGE PLACES.

George A Parker tendered his resignation as a night watchman at the court house The tender was accepted and John McHugh was appointed to fill the vacancy at a salary of $75 per month.

WITHDRAWS APPLICATION.

Francis Joseph Fischer withdrew his application for a saloon license at the southwest corner of East Fourteenth and Tevis street The withdrawal was inspired by information privately imparted that the board would not grant the request. A protest was filed against the granting of the application by C E Brown, L. A. Kennedy, J M Robinson, H. H. Wheeler, W M. Axtell, Dr E. G. de Puy and C W. Russell. This was based on the belief that an increase in the number of saloons at that point would lessen the value of property and welfare of the homes of the vicinity.

BOARD TO MEET.

A meeting of the Committee of the Whole of the Board of Education will be held tonight for the consideration of plans for the securing of legislation which has been made necessary by the San Francisco disaster, and the injury to Oakland school buildings by the earthquake

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

San Francisco, Cal., May 12, 1906.

To the Reconstruction Committee, San Francisco Cal —Gentlemen: The way that concrete construction and concrete fireproofing came through the recent earthquake and fire warrants all who are interested in the welfare of the city, as well as those interested in concrete as a structural material in asking that in the revision of the building laws considerable latitude be afforded for the use of concrete for any and all parts of structures.

Of all materials subjected to the rack of the earthquake and the unprecedented fury of the flames, commercially built concrete has been the least damaged and presents the fewest examples of failure, therefore, concrete has earned for itself the right to demand consideration It has shown itself elastic enough to be shock proof, strong enough to be strain proof and resistant enough to be fire proof.

There were examples of many methods of concrete construction in old San Francisco, there should be many more in New San Francisco, and no restriction should be imposed upon the use of any tried and true method, save that any structures built should be designed by engineering experts and the work executed by competent concrete contractors whose fitness for undertaking such works shall be determined by the Board or Public Works.

It would seem to the writer that the approval and the adoption of any type of construction in buildings of the Federal government by engineers and architects in the government service should of itself be of sufficient warrant of the soundness of such type of construction and so would respectfully ask that the revised ordinances shall provide that

1. That any and all parts of structures hereafter erected in San Francisco may be wholly or in part constructed of concrete.

2. That proper metallic reinforcement of all concrete shall be provided throughout the structure.

3. That only licensed concrete contractors be granted permit to execute concrete work.

4. That the use by the Federal government of any method of concrete fireproofing or reinforced construction be accepted as evidence of the soundness and value of the said method, and that permits for the use of any of the said methods be granted to all licensed contractors whenever applied for

5 The proper rules and regulations to govern all concrete construction be formulated by the Board of Public Works. Violation of said rules shall of itself revoke any license granted by the said Board

With the foregoing safeguards or others of similar import incorporated into the building laws, it would seem as if the public were amply protected and ample liberty given an industry which claims merit of public recognition and which unhampered will work vigirously for the upbuilding of a safe, sound and beautiful city. Respectfully,

THE UNDERWRITERS' ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION COMPANY.

MONEY FOR ARTISTS

At a recent sale of paintings contributed by artists of New York for the benefit of the artists of San Francisco, at the American Art Association, 6 East street, Thomas E. Kirby began the proceedings by stating he hoped the responses of those present would be more liberal than it was on the previous night's sale and that the more important pictures were to be offered That the American Art Association had given their rooms and furnished the decorations and help free; also that his services were given without charge, that the press had been very liberal and that many of the dealers had framed pictures for artists free of charge That at last evening's sale, he announced that $150 would cover all the necessary cash disbursements made in connection with the sale and which sum would have to be deducted from the total proceeds. He then read the following communication:

"NEW YORK, May 8, 1906

"THOMAS E. KIRBY, Esq., American Art Association, 6 East Twenty-third street New York—Dear Sir Your announcement that $150 would cover the amount of expenses to be deducted from the proceeds of the sale of paintings contributed by the artists of New York for the relief of their brother artists of California, has been brought to the attention of the trustees of the California Society of New York The trustees, on behalf of the society herewith hand you check for the amount

"Very truly yours,
"EDW. J. McGANNEY,
"President California Society of New York."

This was received with great enthusiasm by the crowded galleries

After selling two paintings, Mr Kirby interrupted the proceedings to say that he had conducted many sales of this kind and that this was the first time that all the expenses had been paid, that by reason of the action of the California Society of New York, every cent realized from the sale would go to the purpose for which it was intended absolutely free of expense, and on his suggestion a vote of thanks to the California Society of New York was proposed, seconded and carried with great enthusiasm by the audience Altogether the incident seemed to move the audience to such enthusiasm that the bidding was spirited and very substantial results were obtained.

The sales on the first night amounted to $2616, and on the last night to $9721 50 making a total of $12 287 50

POLL TAX NOTICE

Oakland, March 6, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that the State Poll Tax of two dollars for the year 1906 is now due, and payable at the Assessor's office, room one, Court House, or to a Deputy Assessor.

Sec 3839 of the Political Code reads as follows:

Every male inhabitant of the State over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, except paupers insane persons and Indians must annually pay a Poll Tax of two dollars, provided the same be paid between the

FIRST MONDAY IN MARCH AND THE FIRST MONDAY IN JULY

Then it shall be three dollars.

Sec 3846 of the Political Code makes it the duty of the Assessor to "demand Poll Tax of every person liable therefor, and on the neglect or refusal of such person to pay, he must collect by seizure and sale of any personal property owned by such person"

Under Sections 429 to 435 every person who refuses to give his own name or the name of any person in his employ or who in any manner obstructs the Assessor or any of his deputies in the collection of the State Poll Tax is guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a fine of $500 or imprisonment in the County Jail, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Only those persons under twenty-one or over sixty years of age are exempt. Poll Tax must be paid on demand.

IMPORTANT

NOTICE. TO VOTERS

REGISTRATION

Office of the County Clerk,
Alameda County, Cal.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 53, STATUTES OF 1899, ALL VOTERS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY MUST APPLY FOR RE-REGISTRATION IN ORDER TO BE ABLE TO VOTE AT THE GENERAL ELECTION IN NOVEMBER, AS EVERY NAME ON GREAT REGISTER WAS CANCELED JANUARY 1ST, 1906.

OWING TO THE FACT THAT THERE IS NO PROVISION OF LAW PROVIDING ASSISTANCE FOR THE CLERK TO REGISTER VOTERS, IT IS IMPORTANT

THAT VOTERS SHOULD APPLY FOR REGISTRATION AT ONCE IN ORDER TO EXPEDITE THE WORK.

SUCH RE-REGISTRATION BEGAN ON THE 1ST DAY OF JANUARY AND WILL BE IN PROGRESS AT ALL TIMES UNTIL FORTY DAYS PRECEDING THE NEXT ELECTION IN NOVEMBER.

IN ORDER TO FACILITATE THE WORK OF RE-REGISTRATION, ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 1097, WHICH READS AS FOLLOWS:

Sec 1097 No person's name must be entered by the clerk unless

1. Upon the production and filing of a certified copy of the judgment of the Superior Court directing such entry to be made

2 If a naturalized citizen, upon the production of his certificate of naturalization, which certificate must be issued ninety days prior to the succeeding election, or upon his affidavit that it is lost and out of his possession, which affidavit must state the place of his nativity and the time and place of his naturalization together with his affidavit that he has resided in the United States for five years and in this State for one year next preceding the time of application and that he would be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election, provided, however, if such naturalized citizen shall have been previously registered as a qualified elector in any of the counties, or cities and counties of this State his name must not be entered by the Clerk unless he produces a certificate of such registration, issued by the party authorized by law to issue such certificate, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of his naturalization.

3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of his father while he was residing in the United States, and under the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.

4. In other cases, upon the affidavit of the party that he is or will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election.

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AFFIDAVITS OF REGISTRATION MUST BE SWORN TO BEFORE THE COUNTY CLERK OR HIS DEPUTIES, AND THAT THEY CAN NOT, OWING TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE NEW REGISTRATION LAW, BE SWORN TO BEFORE ANY OTHER OFFICER.

THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK WILL BE, UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE, OPEN FOR REGISTRATION FROM NINE A. M. UNTIL FIVE P. M. EACH DAY, EXCEPT SATURDAYS, ON WHICH DAY OFFICE WILL CLOSE AT 12 M.

SPECIAL $4750.00
A very attractive 7-room shingled house located in the loveliest part of Berkeley.
Situated on a hillside facing the East, with a nice porch on the south, making a very desirable entrance to the reception hall; the large living room to the right extending the entire width of the house is equipped with an attractive window seat and bookcases on the north wall, and made cheerful by a beautiful cinker brick mantle and open fireplace on the side; passing back through the hall we find a lovely paneled dining room, with plenty of windows, a nice china closet, another cinker brick mantel, and a pair of glass doors which open onto a cozy loggia or a porch for lounging. Adjoining the dining room, there is also a small room—just the thing for a den, smoking, sewing or servant. And the kitchen is perfect, just right, with a Robarts Rapid heater, large pantry, with plenty of shelves, and doors opening to both the dining room and stairs.
There are 5 lovely sleeping rooms and bath upstairs, with plenty of closets and windows, and each equipped with a call bell besides a large linen closet and speaking tubes in the hall. Off the rear or west room is another large loggia or porch, from which is to be had a beautiful view of the bay and surrounding country.
Even the yard has not been neglected; the lawn is in fine shape, the roses are blooming as well as the other flowers. If you are looking for a home, don't miss this; it will certainly please you.

SENIORS JOURNEY ON ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE

BERKELEY May 14—At half past eight this morning the graduating class of the University of California lined up under the historic oak trees on the campus for the annual class pilgrimage The scene was very picturesque and interesting to look upon The co-eds were never more attractive than they were this morning in their classical caps and gowns They held their heads high and wore a calm and sedate expression. They dismissed all the flippant mannerisms of other days for this important occasion

All were clad in simple white duck suits and all carried white linen parasols

The class day pilgrimage is the first event of commencement week in which the students directly participate They formed the audience yesterday in the Greek Theater when Bishop Nichols delivered the baccalaureate sermon but they were merely passive then To-day they themselves were the principal actors

HISTORY OF CLASS

Clearing away the throng of friends of the graduates who were grouped around the senior oak President W J Cooper mounted the platform and gave a brief history of the class He told of their victories and defeats on the football and baseball fields their triumphs in the different college activities He reviewed the good that the class had accomplished while in college and hoped that the work would go on all through the future lives of the members of the class of 1906

The gay column of graduates then wended its way up the campus, headed by the Third Artillery Band from the Presidio of San Francisco At California Hall the first stop of the class day pilgrimage was made P N Gray, president of the Associated Students of the University gave a short speech, telling of the great addition that this building the latest one built was to the University He hoped that the future would see many more such beautiful edifices on the campus as California Hall In closing his address he made a few sly remarks about the building housing Jimmie Sutton the recorder the handerout of the cinches to the students

The procession of seniors went up the path leading to the Mechanics Building Here H Van S Hubbard addressed his classmates He reviewed the work of the students in the College of Mechanics at the University He told of the research work done by the members of his class and the long hours spent in the laboratories in the building The speaker rattled off a bunch of scientific formulae that fairly astounded the friends of the seniors gathered to hear his remarks

ATHLETE TALKS.

The Mining and Civil Engineering building was next visited W W Gilmore the popular track athlete of the University entertained the class and their friends by telling them of the mysteries of the mining work at the University He told stories of students lost in the mines which fairly made the hair of the audience stand on end A few jokes on the fun that there was in the work kept the crowd in good humor

W A Schmidt at the Chemistry building had the most elaborate preparations for the enjoyment of the gathering He had two platforms rigged up and a number of chemical stunts for the edification of the crowd were performed The finale of these was a grand explosion with the devil appearing on the scene And then the laughing throng wended its way to Hearst Hall

WOMEN'S PART

Here Lillian Williams gave an account of the part that the women of the class had taken in the University since they had entered college in August 1902. She extolled the women and recounted the victories they had scored against their rivals in the University and against Stanford

At the Agricultural College building a number of unique features were gotten up by the members of that branch of the University Huge beetles and insects with dangling legs were suspended from the roof of the building and hung down over the heads of the spectators. R M Fitcher the prominent Cow College man delivered a short speech telling of the work of the college in driving out the grasshoppers and mosquitoes from the land

South Hall directly across from the Agricultural building was visited and Professor Henry Morse Stephens of the history department was the speaker He came to the University from Cornell at the same time the seniors entered and he rightfully considered himself a member of 1906 He gave a few remarks about the work of the class and earnestly advised the students as to the right paths of the future The greater University was also a theme in Professor Stephens address

MISS BINNEY TALKS

At the Library Phoebe Binney president of the Associated Women Students, told of the weight that the women of the class had carried in directing the affairs of 1906 throughout their four years at college She spoke at length of the good that the women had done in their short stay in the University

At old North Hall B S Norton ended the class day pilgrimage for the class of 1906 He told of the joyful hours passed in bumming on the steps and of the countless bags of baccy that had gone up in little curls of smoke He spoke of the happy student days now ended the candy clubs organized on the steps the various skin games used to make some one treat the crowd and exhorted the class to be leaders in the world into which they were thrown and to be useful and good citizens to their country

OFFICER MOBBED

Policeman C A Fife was seriously injured last night while in the performance of his duty

While attempting to arrest a drunken man at the corner of Eighth and Washington streets Fife was set upon by a score of the fellow's companions, a riot ensued for the possession of the prisoner and Fife emerged with a dislocated shoulder and other minor injuries

Fife is a special officer, who for the time being has been patrolling a beat in the vicinity of Eighth and Washington Last evening he approached the saloon of Pereira, southeast corner of Eighth and Washington sts and saw a drunken man come out and commence creating a disturbance Fife approached the fellow put him under arrest and started off with him, when about twenty other intoxicated rowdies jumped him Three of them grabbed his club and a dozen more brutally beat him However despite the pain of a fractured shoulder and the jostling about by the mob which had now assumed immense proportions Fife clung to his man and finally succeeded in turning him over to the officers on a patrol wagon Then he was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where two doctors attended to his injuries

FIFE'S STORY.

When seen by a reporter Fife said I was on the corner of Eighth and Washington streets when I saw a drunken fellow come out of Pereira's saloon and begin to raise a rough house I immediately took him into custody and was on my way to the police telephone to call the wagon when the crowd jumped me There must have been fully twenty Three of them got my club and the rest of them began to jostle me about No one came to help me, maybe because I had not worn my star and was in citizens clothes"

Frank Pereira manager of the saloon at the southeast corner of Washington and Eighth streets, had this to say of the preliminaries to the riot

'Five fellows from San Francisco were in my saloon late in the afternoon When I saw that they had sufficient liquor already I refused them any more They at once became belligerent and grew so turbulent in their demand for liquor that I found it necessary to send for a policeman. Upon his arrival he ejected them from the saloon I heard no more about it for a few minutes until somebody told me that they had jumped upon the policeman in front of Fisher's bakery, adjoining my place While they were in my place there was no disturbance In spite of their demands for liquor I refused to sell to them, telling them that was the law and that I meant to obey it."

In spite of Fife's statement that he was wearing no star at the time of the riot Pereira emphatically declared that the officer who came into his saloon did wear one

There will have to be a general shutting up of race tracks before John W Gates can be counted among the unhappy millionaires.—Chicago News

BREAKS HIS JAW

BERKELEY, May 14—Harry Middleton a carpenter residign at 1114 Francisco street, West Berkeley, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by falling from the roof of the American Brewing building

He sustained a fracture at the base of the skull and it is feared internal injuries will result His jaw was broken by the fall

Middleton was workin on the roof of the structure, when in stooping to pick up a hammer he lost his balance and pitched forward to the ground For six hours the unfortunate man was in an unconscious state In this condition he was removed to the Roosevelt Hospital, where Dr Benton immediately performed an operation Today Middleton's condition shows no improvement and it is feared that he will die

THE DRESSY EFFECT
Of Quarter-Size Fitting

Leaving out the matter of comfort, a too-tight shoe never makes your foot look small—but quite the contrary. And a loose, wrinkly shoe is certainly no better

The smooth, unwrinkled quarter-size Regal fitting preserves all the grace of the natural foot and accentuates its true contour That's why the Woman's Regal gives your feet the same effect of slenderness that a faultlessly-tailored Princess gown gives to a graceful waist-line.

Thirty-two new Women's Regal models—and you can make your own selection and think of the fitting afterward Your exact size will be ready for you to try on—snug but easy, comfortable but smooth.
